EDITORIAL — By DAVID D. DAGMAR

Nobody has asked me directly, but I hear there are quite a few people around the country corresponding with each other trying to discover "what I believe in" and "what my stand is". (aside from the dero question).

This is only natural, in sight of the fact that the average person can't seem to get used to a person with an open mind, and is prone to jump at the conclusion, that because one mentions one line of truth he has found in some particular teaching, that he is completely taken in hook line and sinker by said teaching.

For those who are curious, and for those who would force me to the wall on "my stand", I submit the following:

I do not have the slightest idea what my stand will be eventually, and I think it is pressing the situation to assume I have taken any particuar stand in such a short time, and limited research. At present I have no particular stand on any subject. (Except the dero.)

As to my beliefs, there are many. I believe in scientific proof. I believe parts of every teaching, but not the whole of any teaching. I believe in the "Basic Truths" from which stemmed all "Religious" beliefs, but I do not believe what has been tied in with these basic truths which slant them to a particular cause. I think there are entirely too many beliefs for us to expect any unity unless there is some effort made towards the elimination of "Religious Rackets" and the merging of the beliefs that are duplications after the materialistic injections are removed, that were put in by those who sought to divide for material gain. I think that the secret teachings should be common knowledge, and I do not think the basic truths and so called secret teachings are too difficult for the layman to understand and practice, without going through the umpteen degrees of priesthood, that have us so confused as to what are the basic truths. I doubt if there is as much mystery as some would have you believe.

My beliefs are not influenced by the opinion of anyone, or by what I read in the newspapers. I work with the idea that everything that is written has been slanted to a certain extent, depending on what impression the writer would like to convey. Therefore I am not taken in completely by what I read. My opinions are based entirely upon the answers that come out of my own mind whenever I ask a mental question pertaining to a particular subject.

When I say that Russia will not fight America, it does not mean I am a communist. When I say that Russia is way ahead of us on the development of Atomic Energy for commercial use, it does not mean that I have inside information, or that I think they have an Atomic Bomb of their own. It simply means the thoughts that come out of my mind, tell me there are two separate paths of research to the development of atomic energy, one for the destructive application, and the other for the successful safe use for industry. We took one path, Russia the other. In time we will be begging Russia for her secrets, and will jump at the chance of trading an Atomic bomb for the secret that outmodes it: The successful application of Atomic Energy for commercial peacetime use that could make America truly Atlantis Reincarnate, and war a waste of time. When I say that it is any SMALL Man is growing up. He has inhabited the earth for some time; and during that time he has been a rather wanton child, not using his reason in an adult way. The reason is simple, he is not an adult. Today he is attaining his majority.

What does this mean in visible evidences? You've seen some of those evidences in this little magazine. People are hearing voices; they are of the opinion that they have some special mission; many have unusual talents, ranging from a knowledge of a new type of mathematics to a weird ability to blueprint strange machines; others are tormented by mysterious and sadistic beings; more are the recipients of information which comes from sources described as anything from "Tibetans" to "the soul of a dead relative", or from the "Emperor Maximus" hard at work in a place you might call Hell. Enormous weights have been lifted mysteriously in defiance of gravity. Mental telepathy becomes the faculty of more people every day. Clairvoyance and other so-called 'psychic" abilities are being brought to common attention. The dogma of science and religion is being challenged. New discoveries in important relics and documents relating to the Bible are being made. New bibles are being written which read almost like a fantastic story in a science magazine. Thousands of common people, and less common people, are contacting each other with hardly more than a hazy idea that they are to work together.

For What?

I do not propose to express anything but opinion at this time. But I repeat, Man has gained his adulthood on this earth. By that I mean to say that Mankind inhabits all space and that new worlds are constantly joining the great federation of the brotherhood of Man. We, on earth, are now ready to join that federation as worthy members or efface ourselves as unworthy. We are to put aside war and hate, or wipe the earth as clean as the moon with our hellish atomic bombs and worse.

Which shall it be?

The choice is ours. If you read this magazine, you have already made a choice, even if you aren't quite sure what you are choosing. Maybe this magazine will help you to understand the great plan behind this growth to Manhood of Man. For there is a plan, and you are all part of it. The editor of this magazine is doing his share by helping publicize the facts, those so strange happenings that H. G. Wells dourfully predicts as the signs of the end for Man.

Don't you believe it! Man, fortunately, isn't left strictly to his own devices—he has bigger brothers sticking up for him, and when the time comes, those big brothers will see that we don't blow everything up with split atoms. However, the Young Man very probably will be given the chance to burn himself with the fire so that he will learn his responsibilities in the long life, the everlasting life, to which he is now heir. It May hurt, but he will live.

UNLESS WE ARE FOOLS!

REPORT ON THE DERO
By DAVID D. DAGMAR

Many of the letters I receive indicate, sincere belief in all phases of the Shaver Mysteries. (Some even the Fictional part).

Other letters indicate a belief in the Shaver Mysteries because, it is actually an expose of the workings of the evil forces after you get down to the basic truth contained in the story before it was fictionized.

Something many of you have overlooked, (which prompted you to condemn the story as false) is, that DERO and TERO are nothing more than NEW NAMES for the EVIL and GOOD forces which you all believe exist. When you take the Dero and call them The Black Brotherdood or Black Forces, and take the tero and call them the White Brotherhood or White Forces, look at them as being in spirit form instead of material form, consider their weapons mental rays rather than machine made rays, stick the whole thing in the FOURTH DIMENSION and you have the same GOOD and EVIL forces that have existed since the time of Adam and Eve, (and maybe before?) which, in the belief of the majority, control the mind and actions of man in one form or another.

Practically every teaching in the world, tells the same story as do the Shaver Mysteries, only it all functions in the ASTRAL.

Much is being held back by Shaver regarding the SURFACE AGENTS of the Evil Forces, (people who are under the control of the evil forces and do their bidding, possibly unknowing but nevertheless, agents of the dero) for certain reasons of security, which I will discuss at the proper time.

If any credit can be given to the story of the LOWER HEAVENS, in "OAHSPE", or HEAVEN WORLDS and the WAR OF THE GODS and SUB GOD'S etc., then SHAVER is PROVED if you consider his story in the light mentioned above, (Astral or fourth dimensional).

In drawing my conclusion, I will say, personally I believe that the "Dero" (evil) and "Tero" (Good) Forces are a fact, but they are Astral Entities. Secondly I think they function in the Lower Astral, (which could be underground as well as in the first plane above ground providing they were of a low enough vibration) which could naturally include their entering into the caves or underground passages, from which they would prey upon the surface people through the use of "Mental Projection" and "Thought Control". I do not think an exploration of the caves would reveal their presence, without the use of a (soon to be created) machine that will enable one to peer into the fourth dimension, or pierce the veil as some would call it. (This machine will be of vibratory nature, similar to the "Clairvoyant Instrument" described in "A Dweller on Two Planets", that was used in Atlantis.) When I say Lower Astral, it is practically the same as the Fourth Dimension which is actually an unseen world which overlaps the world that we live in, altho slightly different inasmuch as the fourth dimension would allow a much closer contact between the surface people and the entities on the other side, and in my estimation would be much more dangerous because the astral entities are likely to be much more intelligent than Shavers flesh and blood dero, and much more capable of exerting their influences upon us through the use of thought projection than Shavers dero would be capable of doing with their machine made rays, that no doubt would be limited in the distance wherein they were effective, whereas there is no limit to the distance thought will carry and be effective. (NOTE) There is much information on this particular phase of the subject contained in "OAHSPE" and in "FROM INCARNATION TO INCARNATION" by Richard Ingalese.

In closing, regardless of whether Shaver is right or some of the rest of us are right, THE GOOD AND THE EVIL FORCES DO EXIST, and this investigation is bound to lead us to something good, even if it is nothing more than a worldwide cleansing of false beliefs that have been concocted by materialistic, plagiarizing individuals who sought to capitalize on THE BASIC TRUTHS, rather than teach them for what they are worth.

FOURTH DIMENSIONAL WORLD

Letter No. 1006 last edition is "on the ball' keep after this writer, for whether his material is academic or psychic, this is in line. You can see the check on this in Oahspe or the Book of the Dead.

The writer of letter No. 1019 is OK also, keep after this writer. I lived in this same period in one Atlantean existence. Remember the old adage, "Which is the REAL, the dream or the dreamer? The subjective or subconscious mind (the dreamer) dwells in the fourth dimension, there is no time, space or matter, all are one, everything is NOW. ALL CREATION (all creation is mental) IS IN THE FOURTH DIMENSION. The reason why so few ever understand Genesis (also Oahspe) is that they don't realize that creation came about in the fourth dimension and not the third dimensional world. This is sort of symbolical for I dont want to go into the matter of the creation of this world, its population (in thought form) by the Elder God's etc., at this time. But when you are ready for it, I will sure pin your ears back, and what is more make you believe it, or hope to.

There is a certain natural law (or it may be unnatural) which prevents even clairvoyants like Cayce from bringing anything forth except in symbolical form, thus Adam and Eve, Creation etc. . . but in the brochure "Origin of Man" as set forth in "Thought Creation" you will find it if you LOOK and THINK. Shaver thinks his cave people are physical forms, and they are at times, but is there any reason why we should take it for granted that the astral world is in the air? We know it is fourth dimensional and "intermingles" (though that isn't the right word), with the three dimensional world we see; certainly, there are cave people and actual caves, but the people are astral entities, WHO STILL RETAIN THE POWER OF CREATING THOUGHT BODIES AT WILL THOUGH DISTORTED?

REINCARNATION AND KARMA PROOF

Reincarnation and Karma, its effects on both the physical and spiritual, is a matter of documentary evidence. . . case records, investigated and followed up data,, via the Cayce readings. Some of the people who have studied down there, state there is absolute PROOF and so evident that you either accept reincarnation or else say you dont and that just cant understand it. One of the best legal minds in the south states that the evidence is so positive that any court in the U. S. would have to accept it, when presented as it can be. I know of one case that is uncanny. . . an incarnation of a great musician of the 16th century, who was able to get an entire series of readings. . . . had the time and money to hire investigation as to court records, birth records, old relics, lost music scores etc. . . . and this can be presented so that I doubt if a scientist or lawyer could get any place trying to break it down. Here for the first time is acceptable proof.

UNFED FLAME BURNS TODAY

Your Maxin-96 is very significant now that Atomic energy is here again. Will this again be a duplication of the sinking of Atlantis? By the way, did you know that the "Unfed Flame" is in existence in a hidden Shangrila in South America, where the pure descendants of the ancient Atlanteans, (or Lemurians) are still living? This information I received in confidence, so all I can tell you at this time is, that the people were seemingly of about middle age, tall, blond and with long golden hair. . . . No children and no deaths, there was'nt even a grave yard or burrial place of any kind. The architecture of the city (about 15,000 population.) was the papa of what we now called the Ionic or Greek . This flame was in the center of the city and all refuse, waste matter and like debris was cast into it. . . no ashes. Although their language was not understandable, they could converse by placing and receiving thoughts, which was a whole lot easier than going to all the trouble of speaking. They knew all about world affairs in all phases. More than this I cannot tell.

(Editor's note—Much of this letter has been withheld for specific reasons, there will be more details on this in another issue.)

There is another Shangrila in Guatemala, and one southeast of the Imperial Valley, the first vision is seen in the valley but it is necessary to fly many hundreds of miles SE to reach the actual city and retreat. I KNOW this place, for I have been there many times (in the astral) and received some instruction there. . . . it is lawful to say this is the center of consciousness of the Luciferrian Brotherhood. I was first initiated into this brotherhood in Atlantis, 36,000 B. C. believe it or not as per Rip.

LETTER No. 2100

20th CENTURY CRITICAL TIME

This century has vastly more significance than anything, Palmer or Shaver, as well as many real thinkers along metaphysical and occult lines have any idea of. The twentieth century was the critical time in the history of the earth —that time would either make or break this world— and was seen by prophets, and spiritual thinkers, even as far back as before the final destruction of Atlantis and has been the cause of much thought by all of our spiritual leaders of the past centuries and is now; much has to do with the cosmic world, for when you come to think about it, the materialistic side of things, which is what most people see altogether and some few of us who think, still have to recognize as being a greater part of our life as we see it, is in reality only a comparatively unimportant phenomena. To look, only for a minute, at the realities of life, behind the Universe as it exists, there is, and always has been, its Creator, whom we, in our little knowledge of the spiritual worlds, call God. And to most of the human race, there has gradually dawned upon their consciousness, the fact that back of the Creator, there MUST be a plan.

The thinker has reached a higher state of consciousness than have most of the human race and he knows that all there IS, follows all there WAS and is being succeded by ALL THERE WILL BE. And he also realizes that there are ups and downs and fluctuations and apparent successes and apparent failures, but THE MAJESTIC MARCH OF EVOLUTION "FROM CLOD TO CLOD", FROM THE SLIME TO THE DIVINE, GOES ON WITH NO INTERRUPTION; So to me, the fact that there are races of so-called peoples living, either in Shavers "caves" underneath the surface of the earth or in the fourth dimension (which I think is their habitat) can have little meaning unless these inhabitants have an effect on the lives of the people of the earth as a whole, either en masse or through the certain individuals who control the destinies of the earth through their hidden rulership. What is the difference if a man like Shaver is obsessed and controlled by the dero and tero, it doesn't mean a thing in either your life or mine, BUT, if these dero and tero are the controlling factors in that they control the thoughts and actions of THE LEADERS OF THE HUMAN RACE, then we have something different entirely, then they would be of vital importance to you and me. And that is what we should be trying to find out.

Regarding Shaver and Palmer's research, the ONLY interesting factor so far as I am concerned, is, his "Thought Records". These are very interesting to me for one thing, as evidence (if they be true) of a type of clairvoyance which is distinct and unusual, in that very few clairvoyants of the past two centuries at least have been able to get contact with the Records beyond the fourth division of the mental realm, which is where the Universal Records are situated. The exception has been those who have gotten to the Records in the fourth division of the spiritual realms for the purposes of interpretation only, not historical, such as Rudolf Steiner, Leadbeater, Cayce etc. Cayce was able in some instances (for really old souls in experience) to secure the arch-typal soul of the seeker, but so far as I know, was never able to secure (perhaps it was never requested,) any history of other planets than the earth, A. J. Davis in his Revelations, gives some data on the other planets, but I think he was a little mixed-up in his data, for it doesn't line up with Leadbeater, and he was about the best we have had on evolution outside of Steiner. Another thing, if Shaver's thought records are true and not all imagination, they reveal life on this planet which so far has been blocked from view, although hinted at in the interpretation of the old records seen by Churchward. The dero and tero, whom I have encountered, lived with and slept with, and fought to a standtill, to me are elementary and deserve little attention.

THOUGHT IS TANGIBLE

"Thought" is tangible, when you consider that when you send out a thought it is a vibration. A vibration will attract things similar to itself, good thoughts, good things and etc.

Thought is vibration. Vibration is force. Force is atomic speed. Atomic speed is contained in atoms. Atoms are tangible, therefore "THOUGHT IS TANGIBLE."

BETTER UNDERSTANDING

It seems to me, that in Psychic Research, there lies a vast field of understanding concerning, not only the immediate period of life after death, but of life everlasting. The Bible, especially the New Testament, garbled, mis-interpeted as it is, contains many scientific precepts regarding the inter-relationship of the two worlds which are not yet understood by those who presume to be representatives in this world of the truths pertaining to the future life, reincarnation and the oneness of all force. These facts should be understood by the churches and the schools and should be a part of our teaching as a precept for moral conduct and right living.

It is in this field where we will find the explanation of the dero and tero influence—for it is through the mental faculties that control is assumed—and it is through these same mental faculties by which we reach the fourth dimensional planes or worlds and beyond. Just as going to California. I have to go through Tennessee, Arkansas etc., pass among the inhabitants of these states—I would have to go through the fourth dimensional world, where live the inhabitants of the world, in order to reach the planes of consciousness (worlds which lie beyond).

The only reason why Maxin-96 finds a place in the literary scheme of things, is because the waking intelligence of today is not satisfied with mere theory and belief, but it demands a rational understanding and knowledge of the real meaning of life, both here and hereafter. You have an exceptional opportunity, in that these could be presented in many phases, for they not only exist, but are the same in religion (if you dig deep enough) science, philosophy and metaphysics. They are so simple that a child could easily comprehend the essentials if properly instructed. For if death ends all —as so many believe— then life would be mockery indeed and in the words of Jesus, that, "in my father's house are many mansions" would mean absolutely nothing. THERE ARE TERO AND THERE ARE DERO— but if we bring out the truth regarding these and it means the destruction of that faith, which, after all, is the ONLY means for the ex-

WHY "MAXIN 96"?

It is with great humiliation that I swallow my pride and change the name to Maxin 96 instead of Maxin 92.

When I named Maxin-the guiding force was so strong that said 96, I held the publication up two weeks while I tried to make up my mind, and in the end let someone talk me out of the 96 AGAINST MY INTUITION, on the grounds that there had only been 92 elements discovered to date. Next time I will stick to my convictions. This time I will change the name. From now on THIS PUBLICATION WILL BE KNOWN AS "MAXIN-96".

IF YOU WANT TO HELP MAXIN-96

You have indicated a great need for a publication of this type; I recognized this need and gave you what you wanted. Now I want you to give me what I want in return; I want you to get behind Maxin-96 and LET'S MAKE IT A BIG THING.

Please do not send any donations.

SELL SUBSCRIPTIONS and TELL YOUR FRIENDS about MAXIN-96 so that we may enjoy a WIDE CIRCULATION which will enable us to get the ADVERTISING NECESSARY to carry the EXPENSE OF PUBLICATION. The only way Maxin-96 can continue for any great length of time is for it to be self supporting, which it is not at present.

BETTER UNDERSTANDING

planation of "why, whence, and whether" for so many— let's be sure and HAVE SOMETHING CONSTRUCTIVE to put in its place. It is easy to destroy— it's a damned sight harder to construct. Witness the mass thinking of this country— now that the people have to face the fact that they have been blindly following a leader of destruction, who had nothing to replace that which he helped destroy— go into complete disillusionment which means the general lowering of the true moral principles which bind a family, a community, a nation into unity, invisible yes, but are there just the same. That is the "handwriting on the wall". If we destroy— are we in a position to replace that which we destroy with something THAT IS BETTER?

LETTER No. 2067

LETTER FROM THE "WHITE FORCES"

DEAR DAVID:

Our mutual friend J..... spent the week end with me, and incidentally the S-E Club was called into session Saturday night to receive J's..... report on progress in the psychic and esoteric world.

J..... gave us all a copy of your "MAXIN-92" and emphasized his wish that we support you, at least morally in your efforts to bring truth more definitely in the the lime-light.

You are doubtlessly aware that J..... is among the best qualified men of our day in Psychic principles and phenomena. He claims certain memories in connection with an existence in Atlantis and Lemuria. His strict adherence to the philosophy of reincarnation is perhaps the best supported of any advanced today.

This is the period of transition and because of this transition it is also the day of "tribulations", which in view of the event of our day, is of sufficient import to challenge the best intellect of our planet. Many startling things are to be brought to light. These things will—in a sense—sweep the average, self-satisfied citizen off his feet, making it necessary for the concerned minority to busy themselves in combating, what will amount to unprecedented confusion, that could develop into conflict on an unprecedented scale. So far as the dying Piscean Age is concerned.

The objective of the S-E Club is to burst from the mind the shackles of tradition, superstition, and fear, that have held it for more than 4000 years. Once this is done, mind, spirit and material will assume their cosmic place in the scheme of things, and the technique of Conscious Thought Projection on a Mass scale can be actually achieved. This is the plan by which the TRUTH is to be carried to "EVERY CREATURE". Once this is done, the "Lion and the Lamb" can lie down together. Destructive competition forever eliminated and mutual cooperation for the "general (COMMON) welfare" will usher in the 1000 years of peace, as proclaimed by the heavenly host on that eventful night nearly two thousand years ago.

You are to be congratulated that J..... has—in a measure—sponsored you. He sees something in you that needs a channel for expression, and evidently feels that your "MAXIN-96" is IT. You can be sure that his advice is believed to be good and you can count on it.

David, we are in that interim between the Piscean and Aquarian age, between the dying age of materialism, where most of our citizens are possessed by possession, and the new aborning age, wherein a higher rate of vibration is dominant. This has, and still is resulting in a welter of confusion, as our citizens try to adjust themselves to this new vibratory rate. It has already resulted in the world's greatest conflict from a military angle in history. The aftermath of this gigantic struggle will necessitate an unprecedented amount of change.

This necessity in turn will stir up much controversy, therefor it is necessary that a body of men and women sufficiently versed in the Law of Life should appear here and there to pour oil on the troubled waters, to prevent our civilization from destroying itself. This necessity is the reason for the publications and numerous other organizations that quietly pour a steady stream of constructive thought into the cosmic ethers that is tantamount to the oil refered to above. This is the significance of these organizations springing into existence at this time. So you see there is a purpose behind these movements.

OUR PURPOSE

The purpose of the S-E Club is to provide a channel for release of the repressions held in the crucible of the mind, because these impressions that come to us intuitionally are the voice of God speaking again to the world in much the same manner as he spoke to man in the ages past. Due to the fact that these ideas are often in conflict with the orthodox viewpoint they are repressed within ourselves. The S-E Club provides the channel through which these releases are poured out into the cosmic ethers and writers like yourself get them, and bring them to the attention of the public.

We are trying to recover the lost technique of Mass THOUGHT PROJECTION. We have succeeded in a measure, for the thought broadcast through this club has been caught and brought to print by men who had no idea that the thoughts originated any place but in their own minds. We have in the limited confines of our club some of the grandest souls ever to grace this planet. This seems to be the plan of the Masters for bringing about a stabilization of Spirit and Mind among the confused citizens of our day. We, you and I, along with a much greater number than we can imagine are the channel through which these may find the answer.

THE LAWS OF MAN

Remember, David, the old saying "As is mind, so is our state of being" This same thought is now being broadcast in various forms, and is actually unconsciously taking root. Such expressions "As above, so below"—"As is this, so is that." "As ye sow, so shall ye reap." This is more than expression. IT is a Law.

Your "MAXIN-96" with its spirit of cooperation should succeed beyond your wildest expectations.

I like your determination. You will succeed in exact proportion that you conform to law. The world is hungry for truth, and there are many grand beings now on earth, that are cowed for the various reason above stated. They are, —in many cases— timid souls that suffer in silence, rather than stick their necks out as targets for the ridicule and scorn, of the would be wise guys, that pose as politicians in and out of the church.

There is on foot a diabolical plot to overthrow and override the principles of liberty and justice provided in our Constitution. Right now the unrest among labor is due to this slinking diabolical activity. The powers that be will have to deal with this force, in much the same way that they dealt with the Dunkirk and Pearl Harbor emergency.

Yes, we are all being led, all have our obligations and responsibility to discharge. We must work together for the common good, realizing that whatever is good for the other fellow is also good for us.

I hope I have given you some understanding of the overall picture before us, and some of the reasons for why things are as they are. In closing I think it might not be amiss to give you three questions for your meditation periods. The answer to them will automatically infinitely broaden your concepts and viewpoint, Think them over.

"WHY WERE YOU BORN?....."WHAT IS THE PURPOSE OF LIFE?....."WHAT IS YOUR RELATIONSHIP WITH GOD?"

DERO-BLACK BROTHERHOOD

I'm not going to venture any opinion on this Shaver material, at least not on the strength of first impressions. My own background is in occultism (modern esoteric Quabalism particularly), and in psychic research and parapsychology and I'm a spiritualist in the sense of accepting basic tenets. These studies cover some 25 years. The existence of Dark Forces and Black Brotherhoods is accepted by all occultists, so far as I know and it is quite certain, to my mind, that evil organizations and individuals operate on this plane, from the "other side"; the veil has always been penetrable by some, and seems to be getting thinner for a great number of people. I'm inclined to agree with you that most of our troubles originate on the other planes—and in our human tendency to become mere pawns of whatever powers may play upon us.

Assuming this interrelationship as a fact, many different means may be employed, such as rays and vibrations. But in known facts of telepathy, and subconcious suggestion by telepathic means, we have abundant powers for the exertion of evil influences; it's not necessary to complicate the situation with elaborate hypotheses in addition. But that is not to say there may not be (but likely is) a whole world of astral-human activity yet unknown to us.

I don't think your letter gives much or any clue to your personal slant on the Shaver business(but my guess is, that you connect the (alleged) reincarnation of Atlanteans in this age, with a reappearance of certain influences (energy forms waves?) with which they formerly worked, or which played upon them. There's nothing inconsistant in such a Hypothesis, from my point of view.

We must remember, I think, that there's an enormous mass of occult, quasi-occult, scientific-occult stuff becoming known, and a steadily growing integration of occult and scientifc concepts. The difficulty is, to sort and handle this material, and get the knowledge into demonstratable and usable forms. Some of this material is a little dangerous, as is true of most new knowledge. (On the other hand, much of it has been known for thousands of years, to occult orders and priesthoods). I don't presume to give advice, of course, but simply say that any contact with the Black Brotherhoods or forces employed by them has it's risks. The unknown impersonal powers of Nature are often dangerous in themselves, and one can never tell where these may or may not be manipulated by intelligent entities . . . Consider Charles Fort and his associates in this connection.

An extremely instructive book, though it might not appeal to you at all, is Dion Fortune's PSYCHIC SELF DEFENSE! It is in inside picture of modern operative occultism.

I take the liberty of saying, that the evil forces operating from the astral often manipulate events, so that a psychic attack takes a normal and natural form of some misfortune or disaster, and is not known to be of astral origin by any characteristic appearance. The average person runs little risk, simply because he is unimportant- but if you enter the lists against Powers invisible, it is well to be cautious and equipped with the right knowledge .
I suggest that Mr. Shaver's future life will be worth our close observation.

THE KID'S QUESTION

We have a plan we wonder if you could help us with.

In school today, all the Roman Catholics and one other Religion were permitted to leave their fifth period classes to go to the auditorium at school for a "Christian Meeting".

We got to thinking—If the School Board lets them worship their belief on School time, would they let everyone do the same for their own beliefs? Ours being that man has a lot more to learn.

We would like to form clubs in our school and hold meetings while the class is broken up, to put over our ideas in high school.

Today's youth are very important, because in two or three years the high school youths will be on their own, independent thinking adults.

As an adult, you could sort of sponsor the club, only your name is necessary, and there's swell argument ready for forming such a club or meeting at school.

If the other beliefs have a right to, WHY SHOULDNT WE?

ANTI-DERO-UNIT OF MAXIN 96

LETTER No. 2047

When I start coming home at noon just in case there might be a letter, you'll know I'm getting into a thing up to my neck. And, Glory Be, Praise to the Elder Seven, There was a letter.

I am very interested in what you say about an ANTI-DERO UNIT. I am enclosing herewith a Constitution, embodying a few of my ideas on the subject.

In the first place we have to start with the idea that it will someday grow too big for one person to handle. And then, too, unless there is a central authority divided into several parts, it will not be possible to be in constant touch with every member. I have therefore suggested a Central Board of Control, composed of a Head and five other members. The idea is to divide the country into sections, those sections to be selected, of course, by the number and distribution of members. Take for example, Cleveland as a center of one district, which would take in Western Pa. Kentucky, W. Va., and Ohio. There would be a member of the board in Cleveland who would be in charge of the District. As membership grows, he would appoint in each section of his territory where there are any number of members a subordinate whom he can trust to get in touch with any member he may desire.

I would suggest that in this department be embodied research into the entire Dero Field—The causes, the results and the possible remedies. In that way, the A-D Unit will become not only a check, but a possible preventive.

I have had some experience with Dero myself—possible long before I ever heard of it. But this brings us up to the issue at hand.

How many kinds of Dero Influence are there? What ways do they show themselves? As I can see it there are three types.

First—MENTAL CONTROL. That is a case such as mine. There is definite Control, and general lapse of memory. Those cases should be fairly frequent, altho mine was an extreme case and I could never get anything out of the Psychiatrists as to what caused it.

Second—MENTAL TAMPER. This is not definite control. It is interference, like static on your radio.

Third—OBSTRUCTION—This takes the form of disaster, but it probably in most cases stems from (2). Bus wrecks, plane wrecks, However a plague could not stem from either (1) or (2). Possibly (1) might account for the Mad Dog of Europe, Mr. Schickelgruber.

I would think that the first step in control would be to gather cases, authenticate cases and make divisions of them; see if possibly they could stem from any known cause. Take the thing objectively, by all means. Do not doubt what the person says, but take every precaution against cranks and crackpots. I'm sure you must agree; Let me know what your readers think of it.

And don't you think it important that everone actively associated with "Maxin 96" be a Correspondent Member of the A-D Unit so we can keep track of each other? It is only by leaning together that we have an even chance of defeating the Dero, and, even at that it might be comparable to the case of an Ant trying to stem the Tide.

CONSTITUTION
A-D Unit of
Maxin 96 Research Foundation

Article 1—NAME—The name of this Unit shall be the A-D Unit of Maxin 96 Research Foundation. This name shall signify Anti-Dero.

Article 2—PURPOSES—Section A. The primary purpose of this committee shall be to protect those engaged in research into Atlantean or Lemurian Civilizations or kindred topics against Dero influence, through organization and control.

Section B. The secondary purposes of this committee shall be to institute research into the various means of dero influence and to suggest ways of combating such influence.

Article 3—CENTRAL CONTROL COMMITTEE—

Section A. There shall be organized a central Control Committee, consisting of a Head and four members, one of whom shall be David D. Dagmar, who shall decide upon the policies to govern the A-D Unit and to carry out its decisions.

Section B. This Control Committee shall select reliable members in all sections of the country to act as intermediaries where investigation may be found to be necessary.

Article 4—MEANS OF CONTROL—Any person who is engaged in correspondence or research work into Atlantean, Lemurian or kindred subjects shall, upon application, become eligible to become registered with the Central Committee. Each member so registered shall be assigned a Control Number which shall be used on all correspondece of the Unit relative to that member.

Article 5—EXPEDITIONS AND EXTENDED RESEARCH—Any Unit member who shall engage upon an expedition which has anything to do with Atlantis, Lemuria or kindred subjects, or who shall set about extended research on said subjects, or who shall experience dangerous phenomena in connection with Dero Influence, shall, upon application, be entitled to special attention.

Article 6—NEXT OF KIN—Each applicant for membership in the A-D Unit shall be requested to fill in an application blank giving address of next of kin or of someone in this immediate locality who will at all times know his whereabouts.

Article 7 — NOTIFICATION — Each member shall communicate with some member of the Control Board within three days after the expiration of a stated period which shall be decided upon by members of the Control Board. If such communication is not received, the proper step shall be taken to insure the safety of the member concerned.

Article 8—(Concerns proper steps mentioned above—to be worked out)

Article 9—(Concerns research into Dero Influence. To be worked out and should stipulate various branches of Dero influence and should also stipulate that all results obtained in connection with research should be submitted to Maxin 96 for possible publication.

DERO QUESTIONNAIRE

1. How do the phenomena manifest themselves?

2. Is it recurrent or of isolated occurrences?

3. Have you found any way to combat it?

4. Why do you think that Dero is attracted to you?

5. Add you own ideas to this.

VOL. I No. 1 MAXIN 92

From: 1019

SAME EDITION

1. The Black Cliffs of Yawl. The name "Yawl" itself is unfamiliar to me. As explained in my letter No. 1019 in the October issue of Maxin 92, telepathy was widely practiced in Ictal at the time of Agnor. Therefore, instead of a definite name for many things, I receive instead only a mental impression. Standing on the top of the temple of Maia in Ictal, one may look out across the bay towards the black cliffs. They would appear to be of pure ebony; in actuality, I suppose they are of some sort of black basalt, probably of volcanic origin. As to tunnels in them, it is entirely possible. However, the city of Joris, behind the black cliffs, is inhabited by followers of Attis—a fanatical cult who do not believe in marriage and are in the habit of kidnapping children, and young people for use in the religious rites. As a consequence there is no trade or commerce between Joris and the rest of the island and I would know nothing personally of the black cliffs.

2. Time of the Vision: Letter 1008 states that a "wide, slow-moving river flows before the black cliffs". This would place the time of the vision centuries before the period of which I am cognizant. At the time of Agnor the Black Cliffs descend directly into the sea. However, at some time in past history, the bay that is now directly in front of Ictal was solid land. The history of Ictal tells that much. In the middle of the bay is now a small island with ruins of buildings on it whose streets descend directly into the sea. A legend of Ictal says that the city was "built by the gods from the west".

3. The Goheen Ceremony—The name "goheen" is unfamiliar for reasons stated above. The ceremony itself would seem to be an adaptation of the sunset ceremony now celebrated in Ictal every night. It is a mourning ceremony for the death of the sun. Legend says that one night the sun will set and never rise again—that eternal night will then descend upon the land. Note the fact that there are—seven priests, seven elder gods— the numbers three, seven and twelve were symbolical in Atlantis. Yellow was also a ceremonial color in Atlantis. The ceremony with which I am familiar is followed by elaborate rites in the inner sanctum of the temples. Would 1008 know anything about those rites?

Take the time angle as a case in point, I mention in the above notes on the "Goheen Ceremony" that I believe this vision must be centuries (at least) in time before mine, due to the fact that he mentions a river, where I, looking from another angle, directly oposite him, see only a wide expanse of water. If he is sure that it is a river, then something has come out; right there we know that what I see as an arm of the sea was once only a river, and a drowing of the river mouth has taken place, overwhelming fertile fields and cities. It is in some ways a revolution from the idea that Atlantis was destroyed in one fierce volcanic upheaval. A gentle sinking would allow the inhabitants plenty of time to retire to higher regions.

THERE IS A RIVER, the story of Edgar Cayce, by Thomas Sugrue, 453 pp. Henry Holt and Company. Revised Edition $3.00

One of America's greatest mystics died in January 1945. In the revised edition of THERE IS A RIVER by Thomas Sugure, the story of Edgar Cayce's life and work has been brought up to date.

It is a strange and wonderful story interwoven in the lives of thousands of people in America through Edgar Cayce's famous "readings." Dealing primarily with physical illness and vocational guidance, these readings brought health and happiness to thousands of people in all walks of life.

Edgar Cayce's life was a daily demonstration of the truths we read and talk about.

Reading THERE IS A RIVER is an adventure and an inspiration.

THOUGHT AND NOTHINGNESS, THE SAME?

One of the biggest problems of solving the riddles of the Universe is Creation. How SOMETHINGNESS come from NOTHINGNESS? How can nothingness come into a creative thing? THOUGHT is the only creative thing. And thought and nothingnes are both invisible. Therefore, could not THOUGHT and NOTHINGNESS be the SAME THING?

When nothingness was all, when NO THING was yet created, Nothingness, or THOUGHT was the only "THING" in existence.

All It could think of was Itself. Now, any thing this cosmic mind could think would naturally appear in its mind, as do our own thoughts, but to us who are thought creatures of this COSMIC MIND, the thoughts would be REALITY.

But what could the cosmic mind think of if nothing existed but itself? How, WHAT could it think of itself? If it imagined itself extending in all directions it probably would think of a BALL.

Now once it thought of something, it could keep on. It had something to think about. So it kept thinking of BALL after BALL, and each contained the power of the COSMIC MIND; or ELECTRICITY. These balls are what we call now ATOMS.

Since the cosmic mind could think only of circles, it imagined smaller BALLS revolving arond the LARGER ones in CIRCLES, since the larger BALLS almost completely filled the cosmic mind. These LITTLE BALLS we now call ELECTRONS, and their circles, ORBITS.

Still with BALLS in mind, the cosmic mind gathers masses of atoms together, almost as toys, and built with them a massive solid ball. This ball, made of burning new atoms, was the FIRST SUN.

Then the cosmic mind made two atoms scrape each other to see what happens. Sparks of friction shot up. So powerful were they that they had greater power than the cosmic mind had given the atoms, or electrons. These sparks were PSYCHONS, or beings with their own souls and wills.

They bulit bodies of atoms for themselves, and dwelled on the smaller balls

It is obvious that MOST of the people are holding back vital knowledge. Don't they realize they are playing right into the hands of our dreaded enemies the DERO? Is it possible that when the LEMURIANS left the earth that they left behind in the brain or perhaps the subconscious of certain people the knowledge that would save the earth from the detrimental rays of the sun and the Dero. The DERO in their anxiety to stop surface men from gaining this knowledge, are desperately trying to transplant, by means of RAYS, the will to hold back this information. For a satisfactory explanation they would plant the idea that the knowledge was actually dangerous to the surface beings. Therefore it is not asking you, but BEGGING YOU, for the sake of humanity and the future prospects of our race to attain God-like abilities, to TELL WHAT YOU KNOW.

Wouldn't it be logical to assume that the DERO are planning an INVASION? In fact the invasion has BEGIN. The sights of the invasion are spread throughout the surface of the earth. There are certain portions of land considered TABU on the surface, these are named as follows.

The Matto Grosso in Brazil. The Transvaal in Africa. Tibet in Asia. Mt Shasta in The United States, and certain parts of Manchuria.

From these places come MYSTERIOUS TALES, EVIL GIANTS, WEIRD PEOPLE, sudden disappearance of explorers, voices from within the ANCIENT RUINS. We revolving in circles arond the sun. When they entered the bodies they had to spread their minds all over them so each part of the body had thought. The main mass of thought was at the head of the body—the brain.

But it was too small a mass of thought to remember anything but what goes on while in the body, and not even all of that.

When the body would die, the PSYCHONS would leave it, and later enter another. This is "Reincarnation". And we, of course are the PSYCHONS. MUST pull the first punch. We must choose a cave, attack with lightning speed, for if we don't the visi rays will seek us out and swiftly following, will come the rays of utter destruction.

The sole purpose of this mission will be to capture the machines concealed in the caves so that they may be duplicated, in quantity, to be used against the Dero if they suddenly decide to expand their surface bases described above.

If the COWARDLY PEOPLE who keep this knowledge dammed forever in their brains do not speak NOW, it will force an expedition to enter a cave and under most probabilities be annihilated by the Dero. YOUR KNOWLEDGE could build one of these machines and the risky cave-expedition would be unnecessary.

THE GODS AND THE OPPOSITES

Atlantis, or the last known part of it was off the coast of Spain. Now that the war is over and with the proper diving bells that we could lease for just such an exploration, we may be able to investigate this sunken land and bring up more relics. Some were already found and brought in but nothing was investigated or much done about it, as Spain has been in a turmoil for many years.

These Atlantean people no doubt migrated all over Europe. Traces can be found if looked for in Greece, Italy, Southern France, Spain and Egypt most of all, I believe. What the war has left to find I do not know but there could be brought to light things that have been hidden many years.

The Lemurians must have migrated also, maybe Mt Shasta can tell many secrets. These ancient people knew things that have been forgotten and there is a very important factor to consider in this whole thing. Where did the Atlanteans and Lemurians come from in the beginning? They were able to do things we are just learning to do today. When our knowledge becomes great enough to learn the greatest secrets, will it be taken from us as it was from the ancients? What did they know that was too sacred or too big for common mortals to understand, and so they lost it? The beginning and ending of life, the why and wherefore, or something we dont even know now? At any rate we can have fun finding out.

To me this research is the biggest most interesting thing I could do. It is so far reaching that I wonder if I can cram enough into the rest of my life that I can be satisfied to take time out to die, there is so much to learn and so little time to learn it in.

ANSWER AWAY!

May I answer Letter No. 1020. This was from a 14 year old student and I was surprised to find that he has the same idea that I have been tracing, concerning the Atlanteans and Lemurians. I thought these ancients could have been the Gods of our Greek Mythology. They were well built, had beautiful faces, were very advanced according to the European standards, could do many mysterious things, and were credited as Greek Gods and Goddesses with many wonderful accomplishments.

COVER BY JOHNNY YUHASZ

They migrated across the Southern part of France and Spain always seeking higher ground, branching out and forming colonies. Some went north into Norway, Sweden, Germany etc. They kept apart from the rest of the people and were regarded with awe by the masses. They did not mingle or marry into any other race and so they soon disappeared leaving behind wonderful tales of superiority, soon becoming almost fairy tales. Some records must have been kept and our Mythology resulted.

GOOD AND EVIL MAN

It has been noted the Atlanteans and Lemurians had hideous misformed people among them, possessing a strange power to appear and dissapear at will. They regarded them as evil and no doubt they were. The godmother or good fairies were always doing good turns, pleasing people, helping the poor and banishing evil, and so were regarded as wonderful. I believe these Atlanteans and Lemurians could appear and disappear due to a ray unknown to us. We have discovered the ray to disappear but not the one to cause us to reappear. The Mt. Shasta people are reported to just disappear in the twilight, (from "The Lost Continent of the Pacific" by Cerve, page 256).

You have a very good start with your magazine "MAXIN-92". All the success in the world should come to you as it will be for the betterment of man.

A SPIRIT REMEMBERS

At the age of 8 I became a fanatical slave of the unknown. That is I wanted to know things that were quite irregular for a person of my age. My mother wanted and still does want to send me to see a psychiatrist. My parents having a very slight education don't understand my fanatical attempts to know these things, particularly LEMURIA.

When at the age of 10, I was listening to a radio program concerning MU. I can't remember the name, station or time of the program, but there were two sentences I will never forget. Two scientists were exploring some ruins of an ancient city when one said in an awed voice: "THE ROAD IS PURE WHITE AND CLEAN, BUT LOOK,—IT GOES INTO THE SEA." Later on in the program, "STRANGE,—THIS PLACE IS CALLED MU, a letter in the GREEK ALPHABET." I was stunned when I heard MU mentioned. At the time I didn't know anything about Mu, and still when Mu was mentioned I was paralized, schocked. For some reason I found myself trying to remember SOMETHING. My blood was ice, my heart pounding, my body bathed in sweat. Then I relaxed— it was useless to try to remember. In the few seconds after Mu was mentioned there was such a clash of emotions within me, that I cannot forget it. (Mostly Sorrow) even though many years have passed. Since that time I have been grasping at the infinite. Always getting little tantalizing whisps of knowledge.

I have frequently dreamed about events somehow connected with Lemuria. I will write some for you. I have had many, all different, though most are in caves.

CAVE DREAM

This particular dream started on the surface of the earth. A man is standing atop of a small platform. Near him is a large transportation tube leading into the underground. The man is of medium size, light brown hair and blue eyes. His clothing is simple being made of some blue shiny and smooth material. I watch him carefully because in my dream I KNOW he is ME (although the closest I ever got to looking like that is a rusty colored hair), somehow this is not like regular dreams. I am never actually the person, but rather I watch MYSELF, like as if you were looking at yourself in a motion picture or looking at yourself in some PAST TIME.

I am standing on the platform watching some type of electrical equipment being loaded into tube-cars (I am familiar with all types of electrical devices, but what I saw in my dream is indescribable, other than to say that it was electrical equipment). Presently a figure with wavy black hair and fair skin joins my figure on the platform. Somehow I know he is to be my assistant in some great experiment. We moved from the platform onto a tube-car talking all the way about the coming experiment.

The experiment was to SPEED UP EVOLUTION. This experiment would provide a great tool if used properly, moving evolution forward a thousand years, perhaps a million.

At the end of our conversation concerning the future prospects of our machine, the tube-car, descending at the speed of sound, came to a gliding halt (enertia was completely absent during the trip in the car). The door of the tube-car slid silently into it's structure revealing a well-lighted tunnel outside.

We walked fast in our anticipation to reach our laboratory. We talked little, and occasionally looked at the many branches leading to other cavern laboratories, whose walls were composed of a smooth, black material, radiating light from everywhere. We presently came to a branch similar to the others, turned and walked a short distance, when a large stone door moved down into the ground, showing us the interior of a huge cavern brightly lighted. The walls were obscured from our vision by the many machines rising in height nearly to the cave roof.

Most of these machines were not used in our experiment, but were most likely used in some previous work. Many of them possessed translucent tubes which glowed in various colors. The machines seemed strange being devoid of wires.

My attention was drawn to a small machine at the far end of the corridor. It's dark blue metal shining dully in the light, an arm attached to the top portion of the device, three feet long, bronze in color, thick at the base and tapering to a point. On the point was a round ring looking like an electromagnet. At the opposite end of the arm was a tube of milky color. The overall height of the machine was about five feet tall. That is in proportion to my body (I dont know how tall I was, being a giant or any other size. Although I was medium sized when compared to the rest of my race).

My eyes left the machine and roved across the work bench stopping on the giant transparent tube filled with colorless liquid in which the body of a young woman was suspended. The body was well proportioned, the hips broad, red full lips which were in beautiful contrast to her deep blue eyes. The body quivered occasionally causing her golden hued hair to swirl with the movement of the heavy liquid.

Her body was in suspended animation, controlled by a large machine supporting three electrical tubes that burned green. The specimen was the best my race could offer. We rolled the machine into a position at right angles to the tube, tilted the arm so that the electromagnet (If that is what it was) was aiming at her head.

My assistant cut the green ray controlling the suspended animation, cut the heat control and stepped beside me watching the three meters (placed in semi-circle around the top of the device) steadily rise as I drew down the opposite handle that must have controlled a variable resistance. The soft humming grew to a high shrill, the tube at the base of the arm became brighter, colors that dazzled the eyes could be seen dancing about the intricate interior of the tube,— and then a ray lanced out.

A yellow ray sweeping forth from the magnet, cutting through the air, through the glass tube (Glass?), and finally being absorbed by the flesh of the woman. Her throat began to glow, shooting out pink sparks of energy. I lowered the handle until the beam became so intense that it seemed tangible, it was shining with a soft blue radiance, then it happened,— the features began to change slowly. Behind me I could hear the shallow breathing of my assistant, then a trembling voice, "Something's wrong,— her body remains the same". With quick deft movements we broke the ray and attached a device which moved the arm up and down. Finished making the connection, we threw on the beam, and automatically the machine performed it's proper functions.

We watched intensely, watching her eyes turn to mere slits, her features, now cat like in appearance, were distorted at various angles of fear and pain, and then,— we heard it, or rather we sensed it; a voice inside our heads; foreign; alien. The body thrashed violently about, no longer beautiful, and the voice crying from frantic necessity. "Stop it. Shut it off. Your killing me." It said, "Look, I'm getting old,— dying,—pain. Look. Look". We looked,— and saw. We saw a creature that should never live. It was about 4 feet high. The head having two long slender ears, small nose, no mouth, and a round hairless dome-like head. The body was covered with a shell of brown, crusted dead skin revolting to look at. I could hear that voice, the voice of that dying creature, pleading for help. It was in my brain as if it were I who needed help. I looked around to see if I could get some moral support from my assistant. He was bended on one knee, his hands were on the ground, tottering, dying. I knew the thing in the tank was killing him mentally, and that she only saved me because she needed someone to shut off the machine. A few seconds passed, then anger possessed me. I swung up on the platform supporting the tank, and threw the machine at it's vitals. There was a cloud of steam and cascades of brilliant colors, the crackle of electrons, the smell of ozone, the writhing monstosity on the floor, covered with mercury-like transparent liquid. My assistant crawling, body burning, his hands covering his eyes trying to protect them from the glare of chemical explosions, above all the alien mental cries of the monster we had created, and then the brilliant spurt of fire that engulfed me; finally— oblivion, blessed death. THE END.

The dream I have just told you worries me, because, not only this dream but all others I have end up the same way. A Tragedy.

Perhaps this explains my sorrow when I heard Mu mentioned on the radio.

I have just discovered a person who has dreams so similar to mine that it is startling. VERY SOON I EXPECT TO

THE DEVIL, YOU SAY?

In dealing with his reverance; Holy Satan, one must first eliminate ignorance which confronts the majority of individuals.

This much abused character who is the foundation of the church, has been sanctioned and acknowledged as a necessity. For without this character there would never be a church, and all the dogmas emnating from the black robed politician would prove unfruitful. The Devil has been derived from the Egyptian Typhon and if one would study cosmogony and theogony, one would begin to comprehend this most complicated situation. I am sure that many of the supposedly infallible dogmas of the church would prove but a Pseudo Science.

It is sure unfortunate that the "Book of the Dead" has been used as a factor by some (Arch Forgers) to help them extract and contaminate many good intentions with their unconscionable dogmas.

HAVE PLENTY OF INFORMATION FOR YOU. I have collected this knowledge for only a short period of time. I was planning on sending it to another publication but they are very busy, so I have decided to collect a little more and send it to be published in your Maxin-96".

The information is STARTLING, strange machines, symbols, and dreams. It seems so FANTASTIC, unreal, but I know it is true because I have experienced some of the same things my informers have. Many of them don't want me to mention their names. Such as the person who has dreams similiar to mine, but I can promise you his dream just as he told it to me VERY SOON.

I have just found the REAL SIGNIFICANCE of these things. Two days ago I was sitting and trying to think and form some theories concerning the DERO. when I almost lost consciousness. I felt very light as if I were about to float off into space, then two electric shocks went through my body. I am anxiously awaiting your reply. —Remember— THE TIME HAS COME TO ACT. Yours for more ANTI-DERO.

DREAMS OF ANCIENT DANCE

About my Ancestry, you may use it if you wish

In the days of the sailing vessels a Scot ancestor of mine was sent to the East to open up trade and was shipwrecked off the coast of Java. A little over two years later he was rescued by the searching ship. During the two years he had married a Javanese woman who died when their daugther was born. He took the child back with him —She eloped with a young Scot of the ancient house of Malcolm. My paternal grandmother was a direct descendant on her father's side.

BEFORE and since I learned of this I dreamed of dancing strangely beautiful dances— in a temple and at times around a jungle fire. At other times I have danced in a temple with a large dark hued serpent.

Believe it or not, pythons and boas both are attracted to me— I have seen them aroused from their lethargy just because I became one of the crowd around their cage, and would rear up their heads —following me around with their eyes. Their concentration on me was so strong the crowd noticed it and my companion was scared stiff and forced me to leave.

Once on a dare I entered a snake pit. Within ten minutes every snake in the pit coiled about me. I had to call for help to get out, as fast as I uncoiled them they recoiled about my arms, ankles and waist —in a friendly way—they didn't seem antagonistic— but they actually frightened me by their number and wish to be on me. I am not afraid of them, however I give the poisonous ones a wide berth.

Somewhere in the ancient past I have been Keeper of the serpents, of this I am certain. Many of the rites in the temple were conducted with the aid of serpents and my particular part of the temple was guarded by the serpents' room.

Here are some of the messages I have received from The Voice.

1—Come to the River that has no beginning— flows into nowhere and there you will find that for which you seek.

2—Look within the Chinese Room.

3—Death does not close the door on failure— it opens the way to another try for success— but you cannot fail but you cannot die.

4—This way you will die on this earth. And this, just before the A. Bomb.—Destruction is on its way. At this very moment the decree is being read and the answer is written in flame.

Isnt it possible the "Dero" are direct descendants of "Lucifer and his Hordes after they were kicked out of Heaven? That, Heaven may be the core of the universe from where these strange Radio Waves are coming? That we are about to experience the coming of another horde of Dero who are being kicked out? That you and I and many others like us may be guided to prepare for their coming and counteract their influence? That our "Astral (Dream) experiences" are actually communications with the core or Source of Life and our evil dreams are those influenced by the Dero?

DREAM'S OF ANOTHER WORLD

I do no know if what I am going to write is plain imagination or if it has root in something deeper in the subconscious. I have thought about what I am going to write for a long time, but I have been afraid to write about it to my closest friends, for fear of being called crazy.

I seem to awaken from a long sleep, or something akin to sleep. It is dark, the dark of outer space, not the space of which the writer of scientific fiction and fantasy write about, but the cold alien darkness of outside the cosmos, the realm of the soul.

I have no body, but I seem to move whenever my mind commands it. I am not alone, there are a great number of such creatures of the mind like myself, who seem to be traveling toward a small world. This is as far as I get, then I wake up, but in about a month the dream comes back only this time it has changed.

Huge rocky walls are all around me, and to my right is a Large Beautiful City. I have a body and I seem to be the same person that I was in the other dream. All around me are other people who have a body like mine but they do not seem to have the same intelligence that I do. All I can remember afterwards is some powerful force destroys my body, and my mind lives on.

This might be a figment of my imagination, but it comes back to me at regular intervals and is always the same word for word.

I would like to know if there is anyone else who has the same premonition as I do, if so please get in touch with me.

LETTER NO. 3061

DREAMS TIE IN TOGETHER

Dear Mr. Dagmar:

In this initial letter, I believe I will confine myself to describing several dreams which seem to have been of ancient times. One of these dreams ties in with Letter No. 1049, so I will write a separate letter about it and enclose it with this one. .....

The first dream came before I was old enough to read or write. I should say I was about four. In this dream, I was loaded down with massive chains and standing in front of a low throne or dais, upon which sat an evil-eyed person in a long blue robe and golden crown. I say person, for I do not know whether it was a man or a woman. The hall or room was of enormous size, stretching away into shadows in all directions. I was guarded by several soldiers in short armor who carried spears. I seemed to be the object of some sort of judgment in that vast place, and at the end of it, the terrible figure on the throne arose and came toward me. I turned to flee, but the chains were so heavy that I could barely move. I screamed so loudly that my folks had to wake me up.

I consider this a remarkable dream for such a young and illiterate child. Where could the material for it have come from? A picture book, perhaps? Perhaps, but how about the chains? I felt them as clearly as if they actually existed. At such a young age, what would I know about how it felt to be bound so? Furthermore, the dream has now been proved to have been an accurate prophecy. In one way or another, I have been chained all through my life, and right now, I am in the worst fetters of all. To speak of them now would be to digress, so I will leave the matter to another letter.

The next dream occurred under odd circumstances. I had read an article claiming to impart a technique for projecting one's astral body into space. I followed the instructions and then either fell into a trance or went to sleep. It seemed to me that I met an old Indian, dressed something like a Navajo, who led me through the air over much beautiful scenery: prairies, painted deserts, snowy mountains, one particularly beautiful mountain range of a deep blue streaked with gold, a lovely green valley cradling a lake and a river of the lightest blue. Beside the waters of the lake was a white, Mayan style temple. We descended to where it stood. No sooner had we done so, than the air shivered to the roll of a bell, so deep and clear that it seemed as if it must have been made of crystal. At this point, I woke up. I have used the same technique many times since, but have never succeeded in making it work again.

In another dream, I found myself making my way up a steep, rocky ravine, or maybe it was a tunnel. It led to a very small and rocky valley, or cleft. Awaiting me, in front of what I can describe only as a group of stone wigwams, was a small line of very tall men of the yellow race, possibly Mongolians. They wore long, yellow-brown robes and headdresses that made me think of bishops' mitres. They seemed to be greeting me. Then my dream ended.

A few months ago, I dreamt of a Mayan style city in a jungle swamp. I seemed to be an outsider, bent on robbery. I noticed that all the people, who were not Indians but dark whites, were rather degenerate. Many of them seemed to be mating with repulsive creatures that resembled nothing so much as huge grey amoebas. I stole quietly through shadowy streets, and stone passageways to a lofty flight of worn stone steps. I ascended these until I came to the door I sought. Entering, I found a bare room containing a low couch or bed. There, I found the objects of my search: a glistening white skull and an exquisitely carved ivory knife. I believe these to have been sacred objects. A great hue and cry went up as I made my way out of the city, and I had to run for my life to get back to the safety of the marshes.

Whether these dreams are caused by anything other than imagination, I cannot say. However, I think you will agree with me that it would be very difficult to explain away the first dream in such a manner.

Sincerely yours,

P. S. It may be important to note that these dreams, or rather, some of these dreams are sandwiched, so to speak, into dreams of modern times. It is as if something in the more common dreams reminded me of a happening in the past, to which my mind flashes back before continuing. This was most strikingly illustrated in one dream, where I went back to the past by means of a long hallway, went through my experience and then returned to the present by the same means. Unfortunately, I do not remember any of these surrounding dreams, so I do not know what happenings served to remind me of the past, nor what connection, if any, there is between them.

When you read my enclosed answer to Letter No. 1049, bearing in mind that I had the dream before ever having read or heard of such a people and place, I think you will admit that it was a remarkable coincidence, to say the least.

EVOLUTION AND LEMURIA

What a problem, These two things are as remote as religion and evolution. In either case we find ourselves up against a wall. In Christiantiy we cannot really believe in both things. It is the same way on the Lemurian question. If you believe in evolution, you believe that the Atlanteans and the Lemurians were neanderthal men or lower. If you believe in Atlantis and Lemuria, you believe they were a highly civilized race.

It is difficult to have two things to reckon with. The first is, why didnt they leave a definite trace? You will notice that I said definite, your pyramids of Egypt and other things are, maybe, proof, but you must get real proof. Then too, Mr. Shaver says the cause of old age is from the sun. Why then, did these Lemurians come here instead of going to another planet, in another solar system? Or, if they know about the earth becomming older, why don't they leave?

I am not trying to discourage your knowledge of Lemuria, I am just trying to open up the field. I think it is an important one and that discussing it pro and con will blast the true path to the knowledge that we want to gain.

Maxin 92
Vol. 1, No. 1.

Dear Sir:

I was greatly interested to read about your "sinking spells", accompanied by weird dreams. I have had quite a few similar experiences, although I don't often fall asleep and dream. I usually hear a voice, or voices, and then snap out of it. Sometimes I remember what I heard, sometimes I don't. Occasionally, I even seem to see a person watching me.

One name that came through very clearly, was George Mill. If the person I saw shortly afterward was Mr. Mill, he was an oldish man with long white hair, who reminded me somewhat of Prof. Einstein. He waved cheerily at me, and his lips framed the word "hello".

Whatever you do, don't let these things scare you. Let yourself go, and remember whatever you can. Mediums experience these sinking feelings when they go into trances to contact whatever it is that they do contact. In that most remarkable book "The Gate of Remembrance", a medium whose honesty and ability has been vouched for by reliable scientists, tells how, through such a method, he received two sets of architectural drawings, complete with locations, of a subterranean structure beneath a well-known English church. Excavations were made, and the drawings were vindicated. You will also find mention of this in one of the books of the well-known mystic, Gerald Heard. In "The Ascent of Humanity", if memory serves me right. Incidentally, you will find many psychical experiences described in the books of Mr. Heard. His latest, "A Preface to Prayer", shouldn't be missed by anyone at all interested in these matters.

Incidentally, during one of these experiences, I received the impression that the girl I saw was in great danger. In the hope that, if she is a real girl, she may be one of the readers of this magazine, I will describe her. She has yellow hair tied in braids, very blue eyes, and a fresh, boyish face and figure. Whoever and wherever she is, she would do well to keep away from questionable friends.

Answer to
Letter No. 1049
Maxin 92
Vol. 1, No. 1.

Dear Sir:

Your description of the Almasy expedition interested me greatly, for a few months ago, I had a dream of what was at least a place similar to the wadi in the Gilf Kibir. Nor had I read of such a place beforehand.

I was one of a small group of dark-skinned warriors riding on horseback down a rather narrow valley, whose sides were formed of low cliffs. We were dark, but we were not negroes in the strict sense of the word. Our features were strong and sharp like an American Indians, or a Mongolian's, and we had a brownish cast. We were dressed scantily, and wore what I believe to have been ostrich plumes. We were armed with bows and short spears. As the valley narrowed (we were following a stream, by the way), we came to a niche in the cliffside about twelve feet from the ground. In this niche, was a head, grey with age. We reined in under the niche, and we seemed to be asking questions of the head, as if it were an oracle. What we asked it, and what answers we received, I know not, for there my dream ended. Nor do I have any idea as to whether or not we were connected with the lost continents.

As for strange races in South America, there was a story in a recent issue of Time (Oct. 15th), about a missionary who captured and then lost what may have been the last two survivors of a weird, half-human race in Venezuela.

YOUR LETTERS MAKE MAXIN-96 KEEP THEM COMING, TELL WHAT YOU KNOW. THE TIME HAS COME FOR REVELATION.

LETTER 2088

"SHAVER MYSTERY?"

I sometimes feel as tho MR. SHAVER is a very clever student of legends, mythology, anthropology and the psychology of dreams. That he has taken many common dreams and nightmares (such as the very common one of flying without mechanical aid —levitation— and the common nightmare of running away from something horrible, you just don't know what,) and offered a very plausible explanation for their re-currence in the form of something called RACIAL MEMORY.

Not to say that such is impossible since science knows so little of the contents of the human mind. It is thought that we only use 1/3 of our brain for all our conscious activities, and absolutely nothing is known of the other 2/3. Is this the repository of race memory stretching backwards individual to individual for endless centuries? Only when something like Mr. Shaver's mental machinery is invented and working will we be able to find out.

"DERO UNIVERSAL"

As to the DERO, the legend's of an underground race of Elves, Gnomes and little people are quite universal. The Irish, Cherokee and German Mythology tells of them. It is quite possible to imagine a malignant group of these deformed and dwarfed humans using their reputed skill as metal workers to produce machines controlling the emotions in the manner described in Mr. Shavers stories.

"Reincarnation"

Then too, is the almost universal belief in re-incarnation of one form or another, (some of which can be read in Theosophical books and literature)which is often used to explain people recognizing (or dreaming) of places which they have never visited before in this life, and in some cases to explain weird experiences under which these people claim to remember past names, places, and positions held by them formerly.

There are many legends of course that cannot be explained rationally such as the Chinese legend of their ancestral race coming from the Moon in a Fiery Dragon. Or the record in the Hindu Scriptures called the Vedas, of a "Machine that flew", or the early Greek Legend of the Temple in which you could TALK to another Temple 200 MILES away and that after a while the power was lost. Or the Norse Legend of Gods that came in a Silver Ship and taught the people many things, and many others to be found in such books as BULLFINCH'S "MYTHOLOGY" (Perhaps this should be re-studied in the light of your curious book "OAHSPE" and other recent revelations) which it seems to me was rather freely drawn up in Mr. Shaver's Stories.

It also seems to me that if any rational aproach is to be made in considering IF the Shaver manuscripts present even a part of the truth and have recalled other portions of the truth to the sleeping minds of men, there should be some sort of coordination in the various efforts, lest the needed experiences fail to DOVETAIL IN at the proper places.

Live! Learn! Seek!

There are many both young and old, inexperienced and experienced, educated and uneducated who are attempting research similar to (and often duplicating) yours and I feel that altho I am reserving decisions on the Shaver revelations at present (or until my own knowledge of mythology, anthropology, legends ancient history, comparative theology, psychology, geology and astronomy) is added to in a way that cannot be explained by special training, (and following of hobbies) because of rather curious experiences of my own regarding similar revelations and because I am not altogether sure that the world in general is ready or able to safely use the devastating powers described in these manuscripts, (of which I personally am acquainted with at least ONE DEVASTATING WEAPON.)

Good or Evil—Same Story—New Verse

It may interest you to note that the conflict between the DERO and the TERO if foreshadowed in nearly every Religious belief present on earth today (even the Christian looks forward to the end of time) when there shall be a terrible conflict between the power of evil and the power of good and it is quite clear that EVIL will triumph for a time, but GOOD or GOD will ultimately be victorious. The theme remains, LIFE is more powerful than DEATH.

It amost seems as though Mr. Shaver in his manuscripts has done what all Authors desire to do. That is to become part of the wish fulfilment of all his readers, stirring them to express publicly, that ultimate human longing for a world at peace, and peace to fill the hearts of each of its citizens, because all of their wants are provided for. A world ruled by kindly, understanding and all-powerful people and able to satisfy them instantly.

What Mr. Shaver has so brilliantly described is most any man's idea of HEAVEN, with enough ADVENTURE, THRILL and DRIVE in it to make it INTERESTING and EXCITING. With ETERNAL GROWTH, LOVE and LIFE thrown in, also with a bunch of devils trying to overthrow it.

I do not wish to give the impression that I altogether disbelieve that there were places called ATLANTIS and MU. Plato in his CRITIAS (which no one knows if it is a philosophic discourse on a utopian place or not) and Col. Churchward in his books on Lemuria, and the common existence of certain signs, totems, etc. would seem to argue that they might have existed, also the various forms of architecture which are common to both continents, and the remains of ANCIENT CITIES in SOUTH AMERICA and in ASIA prove to us that THERE IS MORE TO ANCIENT HISTORY THAN IS RECORDED IN OUR HISTORY BOOKS.

There Must be Truth

The puzzle of the past is fascinating to all who would explore it and often Mythology, Archeology and Anthropology should work hand in hand toward enlarging the knowledge in general.

There are many fields of knowledge where research in a cooperative manner might disclose many new secrets of nature and allow them to be applied to our use and confort, BUT if all the Occult Discoveries now revealed in "MAXIN-96" have no practical application but rather lead to the forming of a new CULT or Theosophical group— of what good will it do mankind in general? Have you found anything CONCRETE, are there actually, people who can DESIGN and BUILD and OPERATE any machinery like those in Shaver's stories? Or is all this talk but a wonderful dream based on the most clever series of stories of this age? Since the famous MOON HOAX of 100 YEARS AGO, nothing has excelled them.

I do not wish to throw COLD WATER on your or my hopes for a better world that I know we both hope and dream and trust is coming soon. Perhaps after all, this is but the beginning of a new age of invention stirred up and cultivated in the imagination of one man successfully passed the others through the medium of several thought provoking stories.

Dream

For your records I am repeating an experience I had when I was 18 years old.

One night I awoke from my sleep and I was no longer lying in my familiar bed but on a slab of strangely soft stone about three feet off a patterned floor. As my eyes roamed over the chamber I saw an opening in one wall, looking as though at one time it had been walled up and now in a ruined heap. Through the door I could see a long, desert-like plain in the distance a low range of hills. As I watched, a long streamlined SILVERY SHIP came across these hills apparently carried along by a purple exhaust coming out of one end.

Through the redish mist I became aware that there were TWO MOONS in the sky and sub-consciously aware that there were four others. I slowly came to know that I was NO LONGER ON EARTH and NO LONGER HUMAN. From a harness strapped around MY SIX LIMBED BODY there hung something like a pair of shorts and on that harness were numerous hooks, each holding CONES, SQUARES and TUBES each of which had on one side a knot like projection. As I looked around the domed chamber I became aware it was filled with slabs similar to mine, on each of these was a weird indescribable form, (which I knew was like mine) some of which had long since fallen into SKELETONS. Then I became aware that I had lain there for COUNTLESS CENTURIES in a state of SUSPENDED ANIMATION and that I was LUCKY TO BE ALIVE. Over the one side was a HUGE SWITCHBOARD-like device bearing all manner of dials, switches and meter-like devices. One of these was flashing angrily, and on a central screen a half-seen figure was whirling as though seeking to take form. Suddenly a roar filled the room and my SIX EYES flashed around to see a HUGE THING. (I cannot call it an animal) standing in the doorway. My four hands darted down to my

ATOMIC POWER IS BACK

There is a verse from the Bible, in the pessimistic book called Ecclesiastes, which asks "Is there anything whereof it may be said, See, this is new? It hath been already of old time, which was before us. There is no remembrance of former things. . . ."

Students of Psychic information are widely agreed that the development of atomic power has recently occurred for the second time in the history of the earth. The first time was in Atlantis. There it was used to such selfish ends that, along with other types of power, it was the means of completely destroying civilization. So complete was the destruction, in fact, that today most people are of the opinion that Atlantis never existed.

Edgar Cayce began to wonder about the reality of Atlantis when he heard what had been said in the first few life readings secured through him in 1924. These psychic documents, unique because they traced back the life of an individual through several incarnations in the history of the world, referred to experiences in Atlantis as matter-of-factly as to experiences of these same individuals in the days of the American revolution, or in the Crusade period, or in the time of Jesus, or in ancient Egypt. Astonished, he and those who worked with him began to piece together information about the civilization so lost that it's very existence seemed a matter for joking. In 1932 they secured a series of readings to serve as a lecture on Atlantis itself. The first reading was a challenge.

DID ATLANTIS EXIST?

"Atlantis as a continent is a legendary tale. Whether or not that which has been received (about it) through psychic sources has for its basis (nothing but) those few lines given by Plato, or the references made in Holy Writ that the earth was divided, depends upon the trend of individual minds. Recently, however, the subject has taken on greater import, since some scientists have declared that such a continent was not only a reasonable and plausible matter, but, from evidences being gradually gathered, was a very probable condition.

As we recognize there has been considerable given respecting such a lost continent by (psychic chanels such as the writer of Two Planets (A Dweller on Two Planets)— or Atlantis, or Poseidia and Lemuria— that has been published through some of the Theosophical literature. As to whether this information is true or not, (that) depends upon the credence individuals give to this class of information.

"From time to time, in and through the information obtained for some individuals in their life readings (through this channel, it) has come (out) that they (each), as an entity or individual, occupied some particular place or performed some activity in some portion of that continent. Or (that) they emigrated from the continent to some other portion of the earth's surface at the time (of the destruction), and began some particular development. These must have been a busy folk, for with their advent into other climes— as the information (from this source) runs— they began to make many changes from the activities in that particular sphere (or country) in which they entered.

"Then, if (or whether) we are to accept such as being a fact or fiction may truly depend upon what value to the human family (having) knowledge concerning such a peoples would be, in the affairs of individuals today. What contribution would (such) information be to the minds of individuals—as to knowing or understanding the better, or (the) closer, (their) relations to put (it) in another manner, what would information of that nature mean to my soul today?

Be it true that there is the fact of reincarnation, and that souls that once entering the earth's sphere and inhabiting individuals in the present. (Then) is it any wonder that—if they made such alterations in the affairs of the earth in their day as to bring destruction upon themseleves—(is at any wonder that) they are entering now, they might make many changes in the affairs of peoples and individuals in the present?"

ATLANTEANS RETURN

Over and over it has been indicated in the Cayce readings that souls who had lived at the height of Atlantean civilization—a civilization higly developed, highly selfish—were re-entering the earth today. In the civilization of today, apparently, lies a close parallel to that culture. It seems to provide a chance for these souls to try to handle their opportunities better—with the attendant risk, also of failing again. Such comments as the following were frequently made in life readings.

". . . In the present experience there is—from the spheres—the re-entering or rebirth into the earth's environs of those who were active in Atlantis."

No. 440-L-1, 11 14/'33

". . . The numbers, great numbers, of Atlanteans in the earth at present, as well as the great hordes of those (who were) in that period when the Master walked in the earth."

No. 279-L-1, 11/19 '43

Q-3 "Did I have an experience in Atlantis?"

A-3. ". . . Most all have passed through Atlantis. . ." No. 3667-L-1, 2/17/'44

"As indicated in this entity here, it is an Atlantean. Hence it is manifesting in the earth at a period when many Atlanteans have entered. For ye may be very sure that there is not a leader in any country or any clime, whether friend or foe of what the entity thinks, that was not an Atlantean. . ."

No. 2794-L-1, 11/19/'43

ATOMIC POWER IN ATLANTIS

According to the Cayce readings, the civilization of Atlantis covered a period of 200,000 years, developing more and more complexity until the land mass began to break up and disappear at about 10,700 B. C., with Lemuria going under first. At its material height this was an age of electricity like ours, with not only great cities but also such means of transportation as airships and submarines. They had instruments of communication like our radio and television, as well as more advanced metal fluxes and techniques of heating and lighting than we now possess. A comment in one individual's life reading gave a broad hint of the extent of material development in Atlantis.

"Before the entity was in the Spanish land, where there were those individual groups taking refuge (there) from Atlantis (as it broke up). The entity was among those Atlanteans who remained (in what is now Spain). . . For the entity was then among those who were the interpreters of the seal through which the elements were used for heat, for power, for electrical forces. Thus none of the modern conveniences, to the entity, are a mystery at all, even though they may not be understood. For the entity has ever expected to see same again."

No. 3574-L-1, 1/20/'44

One prime sources of power in this civilization, according to the Cayce readings, was the energy released in breaking up atoms. For these Atlanteans were "not only able to build that as (was) able to transpose or build up the elements about them, but to (use power that would) transpose them bodily from one portion of the universe to the other—through the uses of not only those recently rediscovered gases and (others, but also) those of the electrical and aeriatic formations, in the breaking-up of the atomic forces to produce the (necessary) impelling force to those means and modes of transportation—or of travel (and other transportation), or of lifting large weights, or changing the faces or forces of nature itself."

No. 364-Sb-1, 2/16/'32

Some of these readings, taken in 1932, mention the use of uranium for releasing atomic power in Atlantis. Uranium is, of course, the same substance used in 1945 to drop one bomb on the city of Hiroshima, Japan, and kill in one blow more civilians than the total number of U. S. soldiers killed in World War I. The Atlanteans also used their atomic power for destruction; they even developed a source of power more destructive, a power which finally touched off terrible explosions of the earth crust.

belt (amid much pain and discomfort) and grasped several CONES, DISCS and TUBES. I carefully raised one of these and pressed the stud (with one of my eight fingers) and the whole section of the wall plus the beast dissappeared (or fell in) in a huge flash of light.

The buzzing and flashing of the switchboard again drew my attention, and I attempted to rise to answer it, but found my leg muscles would not move, all went black and I became unconcious. When I opened my eyes again I was in my own room and in my own bed.

CAN YOU EXPLAIN THIS? I CANNOT. Even tho I have several times tried to reproduce that DEVASTATING WEAPON which sticks in my mind as a DECOHERER of MATTER (working by memory fiction?)

I am informing you that I believe these WEAPONS to be of a VIBRATORY NATURE. That they contained COILS, TUBES, a GENERATOR of ENERGY, a SOURCE of POWER, and that none of them were over nine inches in length or more than three inches in the largest diameter. That their EFFECTIVE LENGTH OF USE ranged according to the distance you PUSHED ON THE KNOB, RANGING UP TO FIVE MILES.

Dream Machines in Detail

In appearance these RAY GUNS were something like these drawings.

Please let me know if anyone knows anything of these devices in a practical way.

Pease let me know if you receive this as I have the feeling that there are EVIL INFLUENCES AT WORK TRYING TO PREVENT THIS KNOWLEDGE FROM BEING KNOWN.

As near as I can remember the details the following describes the DECOHERER.

CONFLICT

LETTER No. 2053

Dear Mr. Dagmar,

You and I, as minds perceptive, not as social beings, stand at swords' points on nearly every front, if I may take it from the evidence of your magazine that you place credence in many of the wild ideas advanced in it.

I object to matter of mine being printed without my name and address appended for the reason that I would enjoy correspondence and discussion, with possible refutation or support of anything I mention and for the more primary reason that I own a hatred of the fear that leads to anonymity. A man should be able to face the world as he is, with his wits about him, fearing no unjustified interference and welcoming the justified as tending to shape him more nearly toward his ideal of truth with honor.

It would seem a good thing for persons inclined to go off the deep end in regard to the occult if they would give a little attention to what is known about the process of thought. I say this because from such contacts as I have had with theosophists and others sharing some of Madame Blavatsky's ideas, I have not been able to derive much respect for their self-knowledge, nor for their acquaintance with what is known of the cerebral mechanism of thinking, the brain and nervous system in animals and men, but chiefly in men since the thought of animals is without a language understood by most men. A few naturalists have compiled mating calls of birds and a variety of cat-calls and dog-words; but the field is difficult, limited and of less use to humanity than a knowledge of its own cerebral process would be, if more generally sought after.

I have given thought and creative effort to this topic for forty years and consequently I could easily fill two or three numbers of Maxin 92 with a review of my conclusions, both tentative and reliable,, but for this letter I shall confine myself as much as possible to basic considerations. Even the primary stuff is difficult to state because, with all our science, we have never made the least concerted effort to develop a truly scientific language, that is a simple, direct and consistent language. Instead, building by degrees on the past we use a large number of Greek and Latin terms (such as psuchos and mentes) that at source meant virtually the same things but now are used with wide separation of meaning and with almost total loss of their source meanings, so that men like you, without a solid grounding in English usage, do not even know how to break a word up into its constituent parts with understanding that polysyllabic words are made of three main parts, an enclitic, or pronoun, a root, or the noun or verb (ie naming or action word) from which the English form is derived and a suffix, with or without meaning, for many suffixes are added just to make words conform in classes, often quite arbitrarily and with slight relation to sense or meaning. In the dead languanges the suffix denoted the case and was thus in a way, postpositional, as opposed to prepositional, the enclitic or prefix. No, we are far from possessing a universal language and the art of conveying an intent is difficult at its best; impossible at its worst, where it becomes involved with brains of limited experience with words, as used in speech and writing.

The laws of nature are capable of great simplification, however complex they may look, due to the cross-cutting chasms of diverse tongues. We have 92 elements and the most complex, uranium, is, in its atomic form, the most complex machine in terrene existence, yet it and all of them derive from the simplest, the hydrogen, atom that has two working parts, its proton and its electron. Even here our language confuses us because in Greek the word a-tom means uncuttable. Science, if remembering that when it divided the atom, should have shoved the uncuttable name on down the scale and have re-applied it to the electron, as to date the smallest knowable division of matter. It, at least, has not yet been cut though its solar proton has been theoretically redivided into various named parts, such as neutrons and deutrons.

Now, in viewing the process of thought, we have an option. We may either assume that the energy flows that hold the electron to the proton, at varying distances according to temperature, are thoughtful, or we may deny that thought has relevancy until it has become the issue of a cordinated brain. If we let the atom begin the process of thought, we are turned loose in the whole of nature and become as children in a dark swamp, surrounded by will-o'-such as it is, we hold the brain to the mechanism of mental, mindful, thoughtful or thinking and assembling power, then we let ourselves into a more limited field where our observation can be less inmaginative and more strictly rational.

By doing so, we begin to control our outlook upon the phenomena of nature. I prefer to say that the powers exerted by atoms are electric, but not thoughtful, despite I suspect that there exists a partial synonym between the ideas of electricity and of mind. Thought, like electricity, is both active and passive —may be either action— begetting or magnetic, as in practice of hypnosis. However, to get clear of the atom, we will admit that while it thinks to the degree of remaining coherent, an entity that holds its parts together without remaining static, there is no external effect of such simple bonding until, due to physical interference, several atoms join bonds —hook-up electrons— and become an association called molecular. The still simple thought that is a molecule has no language and can reach our brain only through the brain's own powers of reasoning, assisted by ocular aids such as the electron microscope.

So, upon levels relevant to humanity, the brain thinks, and nothing else exerts mental power —nothing else in all known nature. If there are angels or other celestial spirits, they do not think, as we use the word, because they are not built of

I have just been looking into the question of 'Uweinat and Gilf Kebir, and feel that the sources from wihch the writer got his information are somewhat out of date. 'Uweinat is the junction point for the frontiers of Lybia, Egypt and the Sudan, and as such has been fairly well surveyed and checked up. The Gilf Kebir Plateau which is nearer 100 miles than 60 from there, has been visited frequently in 1941, 42, and 43, until the Italian menace to the Sudan was removed, while the Kufra Oasis, which lay 250 miles NW of 'Uweinat had a large wireless station.

There seems no doubt that the whole of the African desert area was once more fertile than now. While this is largely due to the Arabs whose flocks of goats dessicate any area in time by eating all the young shrubs and trees, it also seems possible that the salt deposits left by the flooding of the Sahara at the time of the sinking of Atlantis, killed off all but the most hardy form of vegetation, a factor which is paying a great part in the troubles which the Dutch are now having in restarting agriculture in those areas where the sea penetrated during the war.

If the writer really wants to read up the question of rock drawings in North Africa, the best book on the subject is by Leo Frobenius (1873-1938) and is called "Kulturgeschichte Afrikas", published at Frankfurt in 1933. It contains over 100 reproductions from all parts of Africa. The price was about a dollar, and any German bookshop in the States should be able to supply a copy as tens of thousands were exported abroad. If he cannot manage German, there is another book by the same author in English called "African Genesis" London 1938, but not nearly so interesting.

"LEMURIA AND ATLANTEAN EPOCH"

I understand you are interested in compiling data on the Lemurian and Atlantean Epoch. Here is a synopsis of the Lemurian Epoch.

The Moon expeled from the Earth in the beginning of Lemuria. Atmosphere of firefog, boiling seas, giant ferns and animals. A division took place in the desire body. The skeleton hardened under the Lunar forces. Then the sexes separated. Lords of mind gave germinal mind and impregnated higher part of desire body therewith. Archangels work in lower part of desire body. When man had hearing and feeling, he used his body unconsciously. He saw himself and others inwardly. Propagation by Angels in harmony with the stars, then propagation was painless. Sexrelation brought consciousness of dense body when "Adam knew his wife". Lucifer spirits appeared to Lemurian womans inner consciousness prompting self-assertion. When their eyes were opened they became aware of loss of body at death and ignorance and stellar love caused them to propagate at wrong times, so parturition became painful. Memory was developed by Lemurian girls.

Science and Art were taught in Lemurian schools of Initiation, which were conducted by Lords of Mercury. Lords of Venus were the leaders of the masses. A great number of Lemurians remained animal like, hence the rise and fall of nations. The sixteen races form latter part of Lemuria to the beginning of New Galilee. Negroes are the remnant of the Lemurian race.

If you are not an Occult student, this probably will not make sense. I am an Occult student and I am interested in contacting someone who would like to experiment with telepathy. I prefer someone with a sense of sportmanship and a knowledge of concentration and mental interference.

MAXIN IS EYE CATCHER

I tried a very interesting experiment the other night. I took a copy of MAXIN-92" to the post library here, and set it out in plain view of the soldier readers. In the course of two hours, I counted 11 men that read articles in it—and six of them took down the address of the organization. A thought came to me that if you had correspondents that were willing to do it, you could ask them to visit the local library, and place a copy of Maxin-92 in sight. It is surprising to note the amount of people that are reading occult books these days, and no doubt many of them are prompted by the unknown fact that they are Atlanteans re-incarnated in these times. The magazine if brought before them, may be just the thing to stir them into action, write to you and give you some knowledge they may have. I know that this is the procedure I am going to follow when I get home, for I know that occult books have a wide circulation in my city.

I trust that you will be able to correlate the information you are getting to the point where it will be of some worth to the organization. I believe that as long as you divulge no names you will get great response. I suggest that you alway keep it that way, and only after you ascertain the reliability of the people should you put them in contact with each other. There are bound to be some who will hear of your efforts, and are going to do all they can to disrupt the plans you have laid. No doubt the DERO have AGENTS here in the United States sooner or later they are going to hear of you and are going to try to determine how much you know.

HYPNOTISM AND MEDICINE

For many years the medicinal world has been afraid to recognize Hypnotism as an aid to Medicine, but today Hypnotism is coming into its own. I was prompted to write this article for Maxin-96 after talking to a prominent California Doctor.

The army was really the starter for this recognition. Many of the country's leading Hypnotists joined the Army to help put Hypnotism on the right tract. Hypnotism cannot take anything away from the medical field but if handled correctly it can be a great aid. I firmly believe that before the war Hypnotism was for the most part a show to amuse people, hence the Medical world could not accept any part of it. Self Hypnotism is the basis of one of our leading religions; where people pray to rid themselves of sickness and disease. The people are told to look at the word disease in two parts. . . DIS EASE. . . ; after reaching this point they try to put their minds at EASE, hence self Hypnotism. Some people don't belong to this religion but use the same method and call it common sense. Even common sense can go too far. I believe that if these two fields, Hypnotism and Medicine worked together on willing people many short cuts to cures will arise. Only the willing can be hypnotized. The same goes to Medicine. . . only those that wish to get well can be cured. All of us try to get the best Doctor we can find; we also must only go to the best recognized Hypnotist.

Today we find many Hospitals using Hypnotists with their patients. The Army used Hypnosis for many operations. The Japanese used Hypnosis when they ran out of anesthetics. Our own F. B. I. uses Hypnosis to glean information from unwilling subjects.

One of the most interesting stories out of this war was the use of Hypnotism by the Secret Service. The Secret Service Agent was placed under a Hypnotic spell and told his mission and message; then awakened, given the name of the party to get in touch with it at the other end, this person also being a Hypnotist put the subject under a spell and got the message. In this way the Agent carries a mental message he does not remember, but remembers under the Hypnotic spell, hence no drilling or torture can pry the information from the subject. The subject was also told that the man at the other end was the only person in the world that could get the information out of him. This protected him against the enemy also using another Hypnotist enroute.

During the war the Army used Hypnotism with battle fatigue. Putting the patient to sleep for three days by using sedatives. When the boy awakens on the third day he is Hypnotized. He is then told that there is no such thing as battle fatigue and he is well again, then he is taken out of the Hypnotic spell. To my way of thinking this method should be used on so called nerve disorders. Oh Happy Day! no more so called nervous break downs.

Being a woman and a mother the most interesting use of combining Hypnotism with Medicine is with expectant mothers. The woman starts labor pains and is at once taken to the Hypnotist. He places her in a spell and tells her that her baby will arrive at ten o'clock the following morning. (Thus the child's birth is delayed). The mother is awakened and sent home to sleep through the night. I understand that this method proves itself with never more than a two hour difference. This is truly a great aid to medicine, saving our much over worked doctors for only day time uses. Letting them get the proper rest and delivering babies with a full day time hospital staff.

Oh Happy Day. . . no more having the nurses listen to pacing fathers in dark hospital corridors, for they will be at work. Things will function in the day time and all can rest at night.

Each edition MAXIN-96 will devote some pages to a guest editorialist.

I WAS THERE (Mt. Shasta)

I believe you will be interested in what I have to tell.

A friend and I decided to attempt to explore Mt. Shasta. We took the bus to Weed, and from there we hiked cross country about four miles. We were out of water and getting thirsty when we noticed a strange sight.

It appeared to be a string of lights of various colors about three-forths of the way up Mt. Shasta. All that accompanied these lights was a deathly silence. It would have taken us another day to arrive at the point where these lights occurred, and it was 11 p. m. already.

We took down notes on this singular phenomenon, I say phenomenon because the part of the Mountain at which these lights appeared was inaccessible from the base. One would have to climb to the top on the other side and slide down almost vertically to this point.

We had to turn back about two hours later from lack of water.

This all happened on the night of September 19, 1945.

If anyone is actually interested in exploring the mountain please write me and I will help as much as possible. I wouldn't advise anyone to climb the mountain as it is quite dangerous terrain.

Those lights that my friend and I saw convinced us that some sort of creatures do exist up there.

MILADY TERO

EXD, can be focused by electromagnetic field. ELECTROMAGNETIC FIELD, consists of any type of polarization of Atomic or Molecular Inner Movement. ELECTRONS, move circularly in a coil as they do in their orbit. Polarization, of atomic or molecular inner movement is accomplished by means of a Mental Agmentor. A MENTAL AGMENTOR, is a machine similar to the human mind in that it creates, paths of least resistance for the Atomic Orbits.

AN OPEN MIND

Thanks for the copy of "MAXIN-92", Very interesting though some of the letters are from those who need Psychiatric help, others sane—all interestnig to me.

I have no first hand information but can refer you to several sources.

ATLANTIS U. S. A.

First here are some items that were not mentioned in the letter number 1010 which referred to Mr. EDGAR CAYCE'S READINGS. According to these REVELATIONS when part of what is now United States was under water, Arizona, New Mexico and Utah were above the sea and were colonies of Atlantis.

Here GIANT BEASTS roved in such quantity that man was menaced, so a convention was held in what is now New Mexico and it was decided to try to destroy some of these by setting FIRE to the GIANT GAS POCKETS. The results were DISASTROUS and caused VOLCANIC ACTION and LAND SINKINGS. This was the begining of the disturbances— later the sinking of Atlantis came about from the experiments carried on with powerful explosives. (ATOMIC ENERGY?)

Another item from the Cayce Readings refers to Bimini as a legendary place. It was Bimini that Ponce de Leon hoped to find as there the fountain of life was supposed to be. These would appear to be Memories of Atlantis.

It is unfortunate that the material on Atlantis in the Cayce records is scattered through so many readings, given for people who happened to have been Atlanteans— thus what a certain person did on Atlantis was told to him but no overall picture of Atlantis is given piecing all these parts together.

One source of material that was not mentioned in any of the letters in "MAXIN-92" is a booklet entitled "Records of Atlanti" by Phillippe. This purports to come psychically to a person who calls himself Zalide and who gives no address except Los Angeles, claims to have lots of material of which these published records are a small part.

THE MASTERS LIVE

Another source that may be worth hunting up is the Master who is the control of Dr. Essie Ducoing, next to Mr. Cayce the best psychic I know of. She used to lecture twice a week at the Church of Universal Science on Atlantic Ave. in Long Beach. If still there I would like to know about it. I once attended a special seance where the Master lectured on the origin of worlds, etc. After the lecture someone asked him if there were Lemurians on Mt. Shasta and much to my suprise he said YES—When asked if in the flesh or otherwise, HE SAID BOTH. Now I had thought all this Mt. Shasta business nonsense, but I had learned to respect his answers. Also a friend from Texas when in Los Angeles was told by a friend of hers, that he went hunting on Mt. Shasta with a well known radio reporter, and that this reporter told of a previous hunting trip, when he was alone, and got lost at nightfall, a person appeared and invited him to a lodge which proved to be the White Brotherhood. Said reporter claimed he was asked to join but refused—that he left the next day and had never been able to locate the place since. If a man who has been there and knows the country cannot find the place it should be obvious that all expeditions would be doomed to failure.

HYPNOTIC EXPERIMENT

I had a letter from Cpl. V..... S..... from Marseilles telling me of experiments he and Sgt. H. L. C.—carried on with the help of an accomplished hypnotist who happened to be attached to their unit. This occurred the winter they were stationed in England. One boy proved to be a very good subject. He had had a life reading from Edgar Cayce and in this brief account was given of a former incarnation in Pennsyvania. He was given his name in that incarnation but not a great deal more.

The hypnotist told him, while under hypnosis that on awakening he would not remember his name. Sure enough, he did not but he surprised that hypnotist by giving his name in the Penn. incarnation. Through questioning him they got the names of all his relatives then, with their birth and death dates, his travels, his occupations and quite a complete picture of life in early Penn. He was hazy on other incarnations but when asked about his life in ancient Egypt he began jabbering in an unknown tongue and the experimenters were stumped and got nothing from it.

All this opens up a most interesting field. Those who have dreams of Atlantis etc., might get together and get a RELIABLE hypnotist to explore the past for all of us.

In .C W. Leadbetter's "The Masters and the Path" there is a reference to the GIANT LOOSE-JOINTED LEMURIANS, Page 29.

The author of Letter No. 1031 Vol. I. No. 1, does not believe in "racial memory" or collective consciousness so he says—well how does he explain the LIFE WORK OF EDGAR CAYCE?

I wish you would add "LIGHTED PASSAGE" by Howell Vincent to the list of books you recommend. Everyone would benefit by reading this book. It is published by Dorrance, Philadelphia, penn.

See OAHSPE p. 76-7, The Lords First Book, Chap 2—lines 6 to 12. Here seems to be a prophecy that ties in with some of Shavers writings. OAHSPE says positively no re-incarnation, how do you explain that?

LETTER No. 102

RE-INCARNATION SPIRIT OR ATOM?

The only way I can explain away Reincarnation, is to offer a theory that amounts to the same thing as far as the mind of man is concerned; yet will allow for the same mysterious phenomonon to occur that is ordinarly attributed to reincarnation; to give man the impression that his Spirit had been reincarnated.

This has to do with the "Atoms" out of which the body is built and their "Atomic Vibration".

At the time of conception, an atom of a particular "vibrational pattern" is conceived which attracts other atoms of the same vibrational pattern to assemble around it and the body begins to develop. Somewhere before the time of birth this atomic structure attracts a NEW SPIRIT which is in harmony with their own particular atomic vibration.

The child is born and all through life, the experiences, deeds and actions of this particular being is recorded in the ether in a vibration that is charcteriatic of it's own vibrational pattern. This you might call the Akashic Records.

RE-INCARNATION SPIRIT OR ATOM?

This being completes his life span, or reaches maturity where he dies from a natural cause or otherwise. He is buried and his body disintegrates, the atoms are released back into the either but still retain the same vibrational pattern as before; The Spirit is released and goes on to its final resting place.

Eventually one of the atoms, (out of this atomic pattern that is floating around in space) is re-conceived and upon conception attracts the other atoms of its own particular pattern to gather around it to form another body which in turn, (sometime before birth) attracts a NEW SPIRIT to come into the world.

The child is born and all through life its actions and deeds are recorded in the ether just as we spoke of the other body having done, and IN THE SAME VIBRATION.

Now we'll say that this process of assembly and release of the atomic particles of a particular atomic vibration and pattern, continues for some time until several bodies have been made up of the SAME ATOMS, but a DIFERENT SPIRIT. Then we have the ACTIONS of EACH of these BODIES recorded in the eithers (or Akashic Records) in THE SAME VIBRATION.

Now we'll say that the latest body has developed to manhood and the stage where the mind is receptive to the vibrations in the ether and the person begins to seek the light and developes his faculties to the point where he can pierce the veil and pick up vibrational patterns out of the ether and interpret them.

This mind being in harmony with the atomic particles which make up the body it is contained in, would naturally be in harmony with the Akashic Record that corresponded to its own vibrational pattern, AND would also be in harmony with the Akashic Records left by all the bodies in the past that had been made up of the particular set of atoms in question. Which would give the person the impression that he had lived before. Would naturally get the impression that the things he picked up out of the ether would be the experiences of his spirit in another incarnation, and that his spirit had been before; when the true case would be that ONLY HIS ATOMS had been used before and that he was tuneing in on the vibrations left in the path of this particular set of atomic particles as they passed through the centuries.

This theory can explain away the mysterious belief in re-incarnation, and put something solid and scientific in its place that is tangible enough that it can be studied with some promise of solution.

It will explain why a person is likely to feel that he is being led into doing certain things in this life, that he attributes to a good or an evil spirit having control of him, when the case is that he is "Magnetically" drawn to do the things that correspond to the force that has been set up in the either by the actions of the various spirits and bodies that had functioned on the same set of atoms.

This can also explain how a psychic can tune in on your vibration and tell you what you have done in this life, as well as what he is led to believe you did in former lives.

It all sums up to a scientific explanation of the various phenomonon that is ordinarly attributed to Spirit Re-incarnation.

In the case of no spirit reincarnation as in this article, The Spirit would be a though form, and would not necessarily be individual, but would be more inclined to follow the atomic pattern of the body in which it was housed.

ONE MAN'S OPINION

The "Maxin-92" is a swell idea, especially since one person would have to do an enormous amount of reading to get even a little data normally. This way each person gets some data and sends it to you. I think you put out a pretty complete book with everything that each person would like to find out.

There was an article I read in a London Monthly which mentioned that back in 1852 Astronomers were looking at a certain position in the sky and noted a cylindrical object, green fire at one and moving across the view of the scope. It moved very fast and acording to the observers it came from the direction of the moon. It continued out of sight over the horizon. This took place in Cleveland, Ohio. Names of the Astronomers were lacking in the article. Have you heard of any similar occurances?

LETTER No. 2022

"THE ATOMIC UNIVERSE"

As one who is something of an authority on the subject, I wish to state THAT THERE IS VERY SERIOUS DANGER OF HARNESSED ATOMIC ENERGY BEING MISUSED, regardless of how it is applied, PARTICULARLY IF EXPLODED UNDER WATER. It is possible for it to explode a whole ocean or large body of water, inasmuch as exploding Atomic Energy LIBERATES AS WELL AS FEEDS ON HYDROGEN, the lightest element known. Because water is H-2-0, it is obvious that an atomic explosion in or very near a large body of water should liberate hydrogen in tremendous amounts which would be a progressive or chain explosive process, once started. It is believed that exploding HYDROGEN IS THE FUEL OF THE SUN, as well as the BUILDING BLOCKS OF THE UNIVERSE.

Only a thin layer of a water cell or wax filler is necessary to slow down NEUTRON RAYS from a speed of 25,000 MILES A SECOND to ONE MILE per second, which latter will bombard and explode ATOMIC CORES of URANIUM. Powerful Neutron Rays can travel a distance of 300 ft. and they can do tremendous damage to life and certain materials over that distance provided that the objects themselves ARE NOT enclosed or protected by a thick enough layer of wax or water to INSULATE the objects in the path of the Neutron Rays. However, IN THE CASE OF THE ATOMIC BOMB EXPLOSION, EVERYTHING in its range would be vaporized or destroyed over an immense area REGARDLESS OF INSULATION PROTECTION. A suitable distance separation or VERY DEEP UNDERGROUND SHELTERED AREAS are the ONLY protection, unless a whole ocean were exploded, and you all know what that would mean to our earth. Threats of the use of Atomic Bomb might force civilization DEEP UNDERGROUND FOR SURVIVAL.

In Electronics and Atomic Physics, we knock electrons out of their orbits and out of their "ATOMIC UNIVERSE", and the said "UNVERSE" itself is affected in various ways, but is not seriously damaged or destroyed as a whole. Nature provides "FORCES OF RESTITUTION" or adjustments and safety valves for such unusual occurrences, and I believe that if the earth suffered a severe atomic explosion, it would NOT be the means of destroying our universe or drastically changing it. This theory is based on the assumption that the effects on a micro "Atomic Universe" correspond as well to our "Big Atomic Universe," and viceersa.

Atomic Universe," and viceversa.

studying Atomic Physics, I will be glad to answer intelligent questions from your readers who are interested regarding the subject of HARNESSED ATOMIC ENERGY. I am interested in establishing Science Clubs composed of techincians, professional men, inventors and amateur scientists. This to be on a nation-wide scale, but first a local head office must be established. At present I have here in Los Angeles a research and reference library on Science, of a very rare type with a quick system of reference thereto, as well as considerable lab, research equipment, for some fields, I will be interested in hearing from those interested in helping form such clubs.

ARE GYPSIES ATLANTEANS?

Strange that running water plays such an important and vital part in the lives of the Gypsie. It is beside a stream rather than a lake where he pitches his tent. Is this the origin of the belief that things of evil like witches, werewolfs, zombies and giants, can't cross running water and are destroyed by it? Beside the running water, courts of justice sit, (the feared Gypsie justice). On riverbanks, oaths are given, and vows made.

Running water is indispensable where Gypsie medicine is made, it must be fetched by a woman before sunrise, (so that she doesn't see the nymphs) no living thing must meet her and no word pass from her lips during the journey. Here again we see the indications of the universal cradle of mankind (Mu & Atlantis). Here again the terror of water, born of the destructive tidal wave that destroyed the sacred lands. Much magic is attached to the cleansing powers of water, now it is called medicine.

THE UNSEEN WORLD

In the beginning, after man first stood upright and received spiritual or cosmic consciousness, he was in constant communication with the cosmic or spiritual forces and beings and was able to use these forces through the help of these beings for the benefit of man.

His was an infant race that knew nothing of arts or crafts of any kind except as he was taught and inspired by these disembodied entities. He had no previous learning or background of memory to bring to his aid in overcoming and subduing his environment. But so long as he was obedient to the commands given him by these beings, he remained in touch with them and received their aid and their instructions and the spiritual power was given him to subdue the earth.

The history of our race is the same as the history of one individual of it, except that man through disobedience, has lost the power of communication, as a whole, but we still, most of us, have that potential power when we are born. Otherwise we would not be human beings, merely animals.

When a normal child is born, it has no consciousness of the material world, but only of the cosmic or spiritual world. In a few days it becomes conscious of its surroundings, its environment, and it is then that its education, its development begins and I firmly believe that if the child is given the proper education, environment etc., as it grows and develops, those channels to the cosmic world may be kept open continually, as long as it knows and obeys the cosmic law, which is the law of the creator, call Him Jehovah or God, as you will for it is all one and the same.

This law and this power is not dead any more than the Creator Himself. It is just as near and just as powerful today as it was on the day that Jesus fed the multitude, by its aid, at the foot of the Mount, where he had told the people to "do unto others as ye would that others should do unto you".

Jesus never performed a miracle in his life. That's right; but all his adult life —and even when a child—He demonstrated and taught the power of the cosmic law of the Creator. That power is all about you at all times, if you will but try to understand it and become worthy to use it.

Sounds like I'm preaching but I'm not, for these are merely facts that are as old as the world, yea and older. But "except ye become as little children" you cannot have nor use this power.

There are, and have been all back through the history of the world, long before the time of Jesus, and since, times when this power has been given to individuals You think not? Whence comes the ability that enables a man or a woman, who never had any education along these lines to compose a poem or a piece of music or paint a landscape, without copy of any kind? Whence comes the ability to invent or improve a delicate and intricate piece of machinery? Imagination, you say? But what is imagination? Pre-memory, or memory of a previous existence? That doesn't answer the question for it only sets the cause back a few years.

I could name a dozen or more well known men, all back through history, who had and used this cosmic power, some of them in recent years. The mechanical wonders that have been invented and made in the past are not accidents. Far from it. They are the result of this power working in the human brain.

Make no mistake. These powers are ever with us, and ready and willing to aid us at any time if we prove worthy.

Here is an experiment. Try living the Golden Rule for a week. Then try it two weeks and if you keep it up you will find it pays big dividends.

JESUS . . . THE MAN

I wish to submit some information concerning the MASTER JESUS, a man full of the spirit of God. His teachings were identical with Krishma and Buddha, and he studied in India before he went on the stage of action.

Instead of going to the foot of Mt. Sinai, where he is supposed to have received his spiritual inspiration, it was to the foot of the Himalayas that he went.

The religions of today are perpetually dominating the laity with dogmas and a mythical Christ, and the devil thrown in on the deal as an adversary, the latter much abused and accused when men omit to assume their own iniquities.

MESSAGES FROM BEINGS FROM OUTER SPACE

Go to your library and get, Sadler's book THE MIND AT MISCHIEF and in the apendix the author tells of a case he cannot explain —a man who is receiving mysterious messages from beings from outer space. This book won't tell you what these messages or rather "philosophy" is about— but Mr. Sadler used to live and work here at Winona, and through a mutual friend I have learned that the "philosophy" thus received agrees in general with that of Mr. Edgar Cayce. Now it happens that Cayce implies the spirits of men on earth have been and will be on other planets in the course of their reincarnations. We are following a progressive path through the planets of this system. Therefore Mars (or more likely the fourth dimension of Mars) is our next step after we complete the cycle of incarnations on this earth.

Now I'm going to tell you something that will startle you. In 1924 when Mars was closest to the earth, radio stations were silenced throughout the world by special arrangement. Several mysterious signals were picked up. The most interesting was received by WOR Newark. But in Washington a special device was attached to the radio receiver of a station there, which produced a light on a moving photo film with each impulse. When the film was developed, along with the code signals, was the light pattern of the face of a man. The scientists were astonished. This story will be told in my forthcoming article in AMAZING STORIES. but here is the aftermath that I did not relate in the article, altho I told Ray about it.

In 1939, just before the war, two radio experimenters in England started picking up signals that they thought were coming from Mars. Their story received newspaper publicity throughout England. Within a few days after the story broke, a woman, Mrs. St. Vicent Jaxon, of Timaru, New Zealand, who was then visiting in England, came to see the men and asked them to send some messages for her. They did —and replies were received— all apparently from Mars.

The two men questioned her. She produced a newspaper photo copy of the photograph print received in Washington in 1924 which had been reproduced in a New Zealand newspaper some time before. She said the messages were being directed to—HIM; that he was Cristopher, that he had formerly lived here on earth and had died in 1868. Apparently she had known him in a previous incarnation. The messages expressed love. Then —shortly after the last message sent from England— Oct. 1939— in the following code: 19.20.-21.69.32.23.— Mrs. Jackson died suddenly.

The English experimenters wanted more information on this photo film of 1924 and where they could get a copy. They wrote to Thayer, secretry of the Fortean Society of which I am a member and Thayer published a brief account of the incident in the Fortean Society Magazine last winter, asked for assistance in supplying information.

I have one of the largest files of incredible occurrences outside of the Fortean Records themselves (See FACTS, June issue, page 66). I gathered information on the film occurrence and it has been forwarded to these English Students together with other information on messages from space. Incidently, copies of this film were filed with the Bureau of Standards and the War Intelligence Code Office in Washington. Gov't code experts said they could'nt arrive at any conclusion on the matter.

You should belong to the Fortean Society, Dues only $2 a year, magazine isissued quarterly, they are mines of material on amazing and startling occurrences. For an article about the Society, see the current issue of THIS MONTH, article entitled "They Don't Believe It" Address; The Fortean Society, Box 192, Grand Central Annex, 17, N.Y.

I don't see how anyone can doubt that certain individuals here on earth are in communication with beings from outer space after carefully reading the books of Charles Fort. And one of the points of contact is Tibet and Northern India. And remember that Fort died the day his book Wild Talents was published, and his publisher, Claude Kendall, was mysteriously murdered in his hotel room in New York, a murder still unsolved on the records of the police. Kendall received threatening phone calls after publishing Wild Talents and Mme. David-

Neel's book —Magic and Mystery in Tibet— also a mine in Tibetan secrets, according to the novelist Howard Stephenson.

I have quite a bit of material of the mysterious Wheeled Objects in Oriental Waters refered to in recent letters to AMAZING Stories. There are a number of strange occurrences, and they may all be linked up in some unknown manner, and by golly Dagmar, we may be hot on the trail of something here in this investigation.

All my life I've collected this stuff—since I was a kid in the 7th grade and now I have thousands of notes, etc. I have 350 cases of Astral Projection and am working with Muldoon in the editing them for a huge book that will later be published. These letters are from readers of Muldoon's books, and several active projectors in various parts of the world reveal angles that are very startling.

"Energy From Beyond" proving our vital energy does not come from food but from a universal source, is the latest article sold to Palmer for Amazing. In Fantastic will appear "Medicine Man Magic" and a disappearance mystery of men from a lonely lighthouse back in 1900.

Regarding the dream case in current Maxin-92, Ictal, a similar case was written up in Coronet awhile back. Radio engineer in Kansas City. People in his nightly dreams spoke Greek, and he had to learn the language in order to understand them. I wrote him but he never replied.

atoms and possess no physical bodies, nor powers, such as those of living forms. If they have supernal powers, they must be upon the order of the power of gravity, which coheres substance and the power of light (or vibrancy) that disperses substance. We can reason about them but, unlike Jacob in his deram, we cannot wrestle with them. They are behind us, innate in us, pushing or motivating us—not out in the open where we can view them and have converse with them. If, in the exercise of imagination, we seem to see them, what do we see is but the illusive figments of our own thought, creations of our own begetting.

MOON STRUCK?

The other night my husband and I were talking about the Moon being a small dead planet, and how a great majority of people believe that we did inhabit the Moon at one time. I think that some believe the Moon is a dead planet because it has outlived it's usefulness. These things always bring many questions to my mind, but knowing very little about these subjects, I am writing to you.

I find that many people have a great love, and also a great fear of the moon. At night when we walk out of the house we look for the Moon and are disappointed if she is not there, what is this close inner feeling we have for the Moon? I think most people misunderstand their feelings, and just pass it off that it gives them a romantic feeling. It is an old saying and superstition, if you sleep with the rays of the full moon on you, that when you awaken you will be crazy. I have done this many times with great satisfaction. It gives me a warm, wonderful feeling, and according to my friends, I am still quite sane.

Mr. Cayce said in his readings that we did inhabit the Moon and on the strength of this, I am asking my questions . . . "Mr. Anthony". Is it really a romantic feeling we have or is it a great desire that we still hold for Mother Moon? Have people ever really gone insane from looking at the moon? Is so, are these people dangerous or just gibberish? People who are untrained and are allowed to learn too quickly may go insane.

If the so called lunatics or Moon-struck people do exist, maybe we should try to learn what their ravings mean. Possibly it is a language of the past.

This may sound silly to most of you, but so many questions are left unanswered. Did the moon really live out its usefulness? or did the civilization on the moon pay some great penalty for a crime?

A crime of using some great knowledge against others. Is it possible that the soft warm sympathetic feeling we have for the moon, could be a subconscious feeling of sorrow for our people who were left there? Or could it be that we go to the Moon when we depart from this earth, and the feeling we have is for our loved ones who have gone there? These things I would like to know.

ROAD TO SUCCESS

I received the copy of Maxin 92 a few days ago and your letter this morning, Thanks.

Frankly, I was rather surprised. You see, for years I have been receiving letters and circulars from all over the United States, from all kinds of publications and all kinds of organizations, who have anything to offer for a good stiff price. I can't deal with that kind of people. So it seems rather a relief to hear from someone who is not a money-grabber. So let us struggle along and do the best we can until we get this thing going. As long as we do this, and all who are interested help, the Unseen Powers will see to it that we succeed. But if we make money our first consideration, we will fail. At least, we fail of our purpose, which is, or should be, to bring help and enlightenment to mankind.

There is a crying need for something of this nature. Thousands, aye, millions are groping in spiritual darkness. They do not, and cannot, believe in the Jewish Bible, as a whole, and are lost and gone astray and are grasping for an anchor that will hold against the tide of Atheism, Materialism and Chaos that is sweeping the world. We are truly at the dividing of the ways. One way leads upward through intelligence, education and right methods of living and government to ultimate redemption and "God's Kingdom on earth" and the other leads downward to barbarism, chaos and absolute destruction of the human race once more. Yes, I have Oahspe, together with two or three other Bibles and a dozen or more other books treating on occult subjects of all kinds, copies of some manuscripts over 5,000 years old—and I, too, have had the lion by the tail for over 66 years.

So let us make this lion roar to some purpose, that purpose being world-wide instruction. Let us keep this forum open to the readers so we may get the benefit of the other fellow's study and viewpoint. You will have much more success in that way than you will with just a few writers on the regular staff. I have been doing a lot of writing along these lines and it is at your disposal at any time.

There will be opposition and ridicule but that has been since the days of Plato and before. So, carry on.

LETTER No. 2125

In the list of rulers of Atlantis given in Letter No. 1021 there appear the names of Nausithoüs and Alcinoü, whom Homer also mentions, calling them rulers of Phaeacia. If I may be permitted to do so, I would like to enlarge a little on the data given by the contributor of No. 1021.

King Laertes and Queen Anticleia of Ithaca had a son, Odysseus (also called Vlixes) who married Penelope and became the father of Telemachus, a worthy son. He was happily welcomed by Telemachus after having had quite an adventurous voyage. (See Bérard's "Les Phéniciens et l'Odyssée".) Odysseus was a man of notable sagacity and prudence and was also famed for his eloquence. You may remember the account of how he sailed with 12 ships on a Greek expedition, all, of them being lost but one, and how he was cast upon the shores of Africa and made a visit to the country of the Lotophagi and also reached the region of the Laestrygones, the latter being antropophagi or cannibals. Odysseus was also on the Island of Aeaea.

The ancient account states: "Within the ocean lies an island named Ogygia, where abides Calypso. . . . daughter of Atlas." It seems that Odysseus was also on the Island of Ogygia and remained there seven years. His ship being wrecked, he built a raft and put to sea on it with a bit of sail to catch the breeze. He was adrift 17 days and then experienced 3 days of terrific storms in which he clung to the wreckage of the raft and was then washed up on the shores of Phaeacia.

The island of Ogygia may have been named for Ogyges, said by some to have been the first king of Thebes, Egypt. A great deluge occurred at the time Ogyges was ruling. Some accounts state that Ogyges was a Boetonian autochton and that he was sired by Cadmus or Poseidon. If Poseidon was his father, he was evidently an Atlantean. Odysseus was not in favor with Poseidon, because of a shindig he got into with Polyphemus, who was son of Poseidon.

According to the translation from the Greek, Odysseus, with the wreckage of his raft, finally reached "the realm and town peopled by the Phaeacians, who of yore abode in spacious Hyqereia."—"A god-like chief, Nausithoüs, led them to a new abode. . . and Alcinoüs whom the gods endowed with wisdom, governed in his stead." Alcinoüs was said to be "beautiful in form and face as one of the immortals".

He is also referred to as "The prince Alcinoüs, large of soul, to whom is given the rule of the Phaeacians and their power." These Phaeacians were said to "dwell apart, afar, within the unmeasured deeps". (That is, away out in the Atlantic).

The following passages from the Greek seem to me quite significant: "Phaeacians. . . . give most heed to masts and shrouds and ships, well poised, in which it is their pride to cross the foamy deep." "Their galleys have the speed of wings or thought." ". . . the Phaeacian race excel in guiding their swift galleys o'er the deep. . .", and to "the pleasant isle of Sheria".

Witness the following: "In our Phaeacian ships no pilots are, nor rudders, as in ships of other lands. Ours know the thoughts and intents of men. to them all cities and all fertile coasts inhabited by men are known; they cross the great sea scudding fast, involved in mist and darkness, with no fear of perishing." This paragraph I have just quoted gives one food for thought: Did they have automatic gyro-pilot devices, twin jet propulsion, and fog penetrating radar? The ship in which they returned Odysseus to his own country had a crew of 250.

I will transcribe a few more questions: "Of the houses reared by the Phaeacians there is none like that in which Alcinoüs, the hero, dwells." The palace of Alcinoüs is described as follows—"There from the threshold, on each side, were walls of brass that led towards the inner rooms, with blue steel cornices. The doors within the massive building were of gold, and posts of silver on the brazen threshold stood, and silver was the lintel, and above its architrave was gold. . ." The door-hook also was of gold. It was here that Odysseus was first received as a guest by Areté, the queen, who was the daughter of Rhexenor and the wife of Alcinoüs. Rhexenor was the son of Nausithoüs.

Homer mentions Laodamas, Halius, and Clyteneius three sons of Alcinoü, also Nausicaa, the daughter, and Demodocus, the bard, and Amphialus, a son of Polyneius, Tekton's son, as well as Pontonous, Acroneus, Prymeus, Thoon, Anabasineüs, Elatreus, and various others. There is special mention of "Echeneus, oldest and most eloquent chief of the Phaeacians; large his knowledge was of things long past."

The story of the travelers of Odysseus was known in various lands as far back as 1200 B.C., or nearly so. It was known to even the Basques and the Celts. Homer, himself, according to Scott, lived some time between 1050 B.C. and 850 B.C.

From all of the foregoing, it seems fairly clear that Phaeacia was Atlantis.

HAS ANYONE ANY INFORMATION ABOUT "ONANEUSE"? Signed-Memo Ignotus.

"HAS ANYONE SEEN NEMO?"

I am sorry Nemo, but I don't have the information although I will try to find it for you. I am also sorry that the above is the only two of your some THIRTY LETTERS that I was able to publish in "Maxin-96" due ttohe fact that you remained anonymous throughout all the letters, and due to plagarisim laws, I do not print any letters unless I know where they come from. There was some very interesting material in your letters, and it is too bad that they missed this edition but if you will identify yourself perhaps some of your material will reach the next edition of "Maxin-96".

COMRADE SEARCHER FOR HIDDEN TRUTHS

The limits of all human means of expression make full communication of the almost chaos of words to convery in full the inner, often imperfect and incomplete impressions is all to narrow and constricted, so that we often word our thoughts so erroneously and imperfectly as to convey the very opposite for what he wish. We, in our human world, would do well to always bear in mind, and to be extremely tolerant of another's ideas and views. Only by such tolerance can we hope for a possible future intellectual homogeneity, leading in time, to a true brotherhood of man. We may, in time, invent a new language much more expressive than any now in existance, which will enable us to exchange impressions more perfectly and with better mutual understanding. It should, also, enable us to think better and put our thoughts in better relations.

Have you ever read A. Merritt's, Moon Pool and The Ship of Ishtar? I think that many novelist's have, at times, caught a glimpse of natural laws and powers subtly hidden from general human ken. The purely supernatural, independent and apart from the laws and powers of Nature. Only a very few of which we have been able to discover and comprehend, I reject as contrary to logic, which is the key with which nature endowed us, to enable us to unlock the doors which we continually stumble against in our search for wisdom and truth. Aye, we may discover wonders hidden deeply within Earth and other elements, illimitably greater and more profound than any human philosophy heretofore promulgated. By searching the works of all ancient philosophers, such as Socrates and other Greek Philosophers, Kung Fu Tse, Guatama Buddha (whose works have been so distorted, forged and demoralized by priest in search of power and prestige as to have become almost worthless to us), and many others, we may get upon the track of great discoveries. In searching the works of all these great men, we mustn't forget that, in their day they mostly discoursed in analogies, metaphor, hyperbole and allegory, to be understood only to the initiated, and to avoid useless and dangerous conflicts with the ignorant. Socrates, for instance, spoke in metaphor when he said: "God and Devil are one; good and evil are the same." No human Philosopher has ever come closer to the TRUTH than that. Good and evil are like an edible stick of material, one end of which is poisonous, the other nutritious and nourishing; while near the middle it is more valuable for both food and nourishment than at the good end. The good end contains a pleasant taste, enjoyable sensation which is but a hint of the much greater enjoyable substance farther on. But, there again, we must use the key of logic to point out safety.

I am very much interested in the sections mentioned in A. Merrit's Moon Pool, and in Atlantis and Lemuria. I believe the legends spoken of in those books are based upon fact. We of the occidental people have been stupid fools. And I am agressively opposed to Bibles, supernaturalistic miracles and alleged divine revelations. I call myself an Atheist. I look for revelations to come from scientists and delvers deeply in the earth. We have scarcely scratched the hidden mysteries of Nature's hidden powers and laws.

BOOKS FOR OUR READERS

We have long been told that we are reincarnated Atlanteans, so anything along this line should be, and is at the present moment interesting.

I note that you refer to the book "Earth Dwellers Return", and not to the original book "The Dweller On Two Planets". We have been much more deeply impressed by the book "The Dweller On Two Planets".

The following is a list of books which I have read which touch either on Atlantis or re-incarnation.

"Lemuria" by Wisher S. Cerve.
"New Atlantis" by Bacon.
"Prince of Atlantis" by Lillian E. Roy.
"Dagmar the Egyptian" don't know author.

"The Winged Paroah" by Joan Grant.
"The Coming Race" by B. Leytton.
"The Plumed Serpent" by Grace Cook.
"Etidorpha" don't know author.

THE FALL OF LEMURIA

RECORDED IN THE OAHSPE

And there began to be a new tribe on the earth; and they were called I'huans, because they were half breeds between the Druks and I'hins. The I'huans were red like copper; and they were taller and stronger than any other people in all the world. And the Lord commanded the I'huans saying: Protect ye the I'hins, the little people; white and yellow; call them Sacred People. For ye are of them, and ye are also of the Lord your God. And it was so.

And the earth rocked to and fro . . . . But the land was swallowed up valleys and mountains, and all the living perished save the I'huans, who floated off in the ships. There were 12 thousand, 420; and these were descendants of the first race of man that walked on two feet.

By the will of God were the ships congregated into 4 fleets; 34 ships in each fleet; save two ships which were carried in a fleet to themselves. The Lord said; I will name the fleets of my chosen, and their names shall be everlasting on the earth. And the Lord named them Guatama, Shem, Jaffeth, Ham and Yista.

The fleet named Guatama was carried to the eastward, and the country whither it landed was also called Guatama (America). The Lord said; From this place shall my chosen spread out north and south. But they shall not inhabit the lands to the east or west as far as the sea; for they shall be testimony in time to come of this landing place from the continent of Pan. God said: Suffer my people to bestow names to the places whither I lead them: for these names shall show in the kosmon era the work of my hand done in this day. The fleet of two ships carried to the north was named Yista which in the Whaga Tongue was Zha'Pan' which is the same country that is to this day called Japan, signifying Relic of the continent of Pan, for it lay to the north, where the land was cleaved in twain.

And the Lord said: Behold eight H'dan shall come, and ye shall be as a key to unlock the labors of heaven; for of all people ye shall be reckoned the oldest in the world. And until I come and unlock the sea, ye shall remain an exclusive people from all tribes and nations.

"GOLDEN PEOPLE" of QUEEN CALIFORNIA"

I am glad to contribute to that little Hum-Dinger of a Magazine "Maxine-92", Keep it going.

Living in California I suppose that you have heard the stories about "Queen Calif." and the "Golden People." A very advanced race and for my money an original colony of Lemuria by way of Atlantis.

According to the information I received from a native son, in the dim prehistory of Baja California and California proper, a group of the "Golden People" came from the sea and made a crude settlement there.

They were advanced in the arts and sciences and foresaw the destruction of their new settlement by tidal wave so they made the land an encampment instead of a colony and before the destruction came they packed everything into outrigger canoes and sailed into the sunset and across the waters.

I believe the story of Queen Calif. and the "Golden People" is mentioned in one of "Spencer Lewis" Rocicrucian books.

At present I am making an extensive research of "Folklore" and am startled by the logic that can be found in it, in many cases I find that these folk tales are merely exaggerated thuths.

Preserve ye, therefore, the names of my rites and ceremonies and especially the names of land and water, and the firmament above, and ships that plow the water, and all sounds whatever that man maketh in the throat without the tongue and lips; for in the time of my glory on the earth ye shall also be glorified. Preserve ye also, peace and righteousness and industry, for ye shall be a testimony in the later time of the presence of my hand and of the Great Spirit also. Thus was settled Japan, and it continues to this day.

The fleet named Jaffeth was driven westward and north, and the country was called Jaffeth for thousands of years thereafter, and is the same as is called China to this day.

The fleet named Shem landed to the south, and the country was called Shem, and is today Vibd'ya (India).

"ANCIENT RACES"

The first thing to ascertain, is whether or not these "DERO" really exist. The world might at this minute be in danger from them, or they might now be attacking. But as I said before we must explore Mt. Shasta or any other place of disturbances and find out if there are "dero" or what we have to deal with.

Another thing that needs attention are "MUTUAN MION'S" "TELONIUM PLATES". Mr. Palmer said he was on the trail of them. What were his results? If we can find them it proves the Shaver stories.

Much is said in Mythology about the races of man. In the story of PROMETHEUS it mentions that first there was a GOLDEN RACE who lived justly even though they had no laws to compel them to do so. Because it was everlasting spring, the people could live much longer than the people of the Greek time.

The GOLDEN RACE is significant, It is the race of early LEMURIANS. It was warm because the earth had not cooled off too much. The first race of LEMURIANS had no INJUSTICE.

The next race was the SILVER RACE, less noble in mind and body. In this time the seasons started. These people lived shorter lives although longer than ours today. Injustice was frequent among this race.

Here we see that the race of Atlantis was less gracious and that a great number of years had passed between the GOLDEN RACE and the SILVER RACE because it mentions the seasons.

Then came the RACE OF BRONZE, these men were of great stature (GIANTS) terrible and strong. Everything of theirs was made of bronze. They spent their time in fighting and did not live to any great age.

This also is significant because the men of ending Atlantis were entirely a fighting race. Their degradation was complete.

Then came the RACE OF IRON, This was a race that had no justice, nor stature. They used iron and grew old very quickly.

This was the final Lemurian Epoch. Then Prometheus who was called the Foreseer, learned that Zeus was planning to destroy the earth by a flood, so he told Deucalion, (see "Bulfinch") about the flood and showed them how to build a ship. Thus they survived the flood.

Now this story may not be correct, but if Greek narrations and legends can be counted on for accuracy or even a partial basis of truth, we find our story of Atlantis. It might not be a bad idea to read through any mythology particularly Greek for any other hints. The book I got them from was "The Golden Fleece and the Heroes who lived before Achilles" by Padriac Colum.

"MT SHASTA"

There are several markers near the Shasta village at the foot of the mountain.

I think that these people may be descendants of the "ANCIENT IRISH or EIREANS" who got away from Ireland when the Catholic Popes destroyed Eire. It is a known fact that the Eireans had commercial connections with all the Continents and Islands of the Globe and maybe with other Planets outside.

It is a known fact that there is a SPACE SHIP in the Chinese Himalayas, stuck in the side of the mountain and partly covered with lava. Where did it come from?

The Klamath basin is in Oregon and part in northern California. In Siskiyou County where there are yet the remains of the Lemurian colonies, there are very strange marks on the rocks.

At "Walla-Ibas-Skeeny" Foothills of San Jose below Santa Clara valley strange lights have been seen. Also from San Francisco bay. It is my belief that there are people there who are a lot smarter than we are and I would not advertise the expedition too much at first, find out a few things and then act. Lets not force ourselves in. Beware of the Disintegrator. "Only a chosen few may enter" So may it be.

It may take strong instruments to locate an inlet to the caves, but if we could get in I would not be a bit surprised if there were people living in the caves who are advanced way beyond our present civilization in Hypnotisim, Telepathy, Ventriloquisim, Physics, Electronics and many other Sciencies like the use of The Atom in industry for the benefit of the human races.

FOURTH DIMENSION REFLECTION

I have just received the first copy of "MAXIN-92" and found it very interesting.

I hope in time to meet some of the writers if any happen to live near KELSO, WASHINGTON.

My method of getting undestanding is to read everything I can get on the subject whether for or against a certain idea and then rationalize. I try to figure WHY and HOW certain SUPERSTITIONS originated and keep clear of FANATICAL IDEAS.

ADAM and EVE— This was discussed in letter No. 1012, Vol. I, No. 1.

Heaven Earth

The Garden of Eden—. There have probably been, not one but many. Some of them still exist enclosed by high mountains. We think of Heaven as a City, and of a place of natural beauty, where cities are not needed as a paradise or Eden. Which would we rather have?

The Tree of Life. There are places in this world where practically all that is needed for human sustenance can be had from trees. Food, clothes, shelter and even cigarettes to smoke can be had without the labor of sowing and reaping, plowing and the like.

The Gods of Olympus, They were men, survivors of an ancient scientific civilization. Jehova was a man, perhaps one of them, who went to Mt. Sinai to start a nation of his own.

The Fourth Dimension, is a reflection, no more, no less. Those who speculate on the possibility of a solid body going through it are in reality trying to find the second dimension of lines. If you wish to find out about the fourth dimension, use mirrors and see how one light can be reflected and be made to apeear as many lights, and how a small room can be made to look like an endless succession of rooms. We look at the universe through the curved lens of air and moisture mixed, both of which have reflecting qualities. I think we may be greatly deceived thereby and think the universe is much bigger and space more vast than it really is.

THE SATELLITE THEORY OF CREATION

Instead of supposing that suns explode and cast out planets, this theory states that the light and heat of suns is maintained by the rain of Satellites(meteorites) large and small with which it collides.

The universe began as a cloud of cosmic dust, or tiny particles or lines of force. When the lines of force cross (X) matter begins to form. A lump of matter attracts other bodies of matter. The smaller body begins to revolve around a larger body in a circle. Eventually the circle becomes an Ellipse, then one of two things happens. At its Aphelion, the planet breaks away from its superior and goes out into free space, or else at its Periphelion it collides with the sun.

This theory supposes that eventually all the matter of the universe will be united into one world, complete itself without Satelites or without need for power from a distant sun. After aeons of time this world will become cosmic dust and the Satellite process will begin all over again.

There are some ancient Prophesies that say the world will end when the Moon falls on it. Some persons take this so seriously they have discussed the idea of trying to blow the moon to pieces with bombs. That however would be absurd. The less humanity interferes with the balance of natural forces the better.

The circle is not constant, it is in a way, irrational for its exact diameter is unknown. Who wants to go around in a circle forever? No one.

When a human soul incarnates, it becomes a satellite of its parent. The daughter is a satellite of the father. The son is a satellite of the mother. The circle becomes an ellipse, until at maturity the child has a mind and a will of its own and the circle is broken.

The power of the cross is a scientific idea which has been used by many religions, some in the right manner and others in a mistaken way. The cross was never intended to be a symbol of death, but as a powerful incentive of hope and life.

THE "MEMORY OF NATURE"

A few years ago my Mother, Wife and I, were sitting in our living room. My wife's brother was employed on a dairy farm at the south end of town. Suddenly we were interrupted in our conversation by the voice of this brother calling my wife. She immediately answered and ran to the front door, but found no one in sight. Feeling that something had befallen him, we drove out to the dairy farm and found that he was alright and busy with his duties.

I pondered long over this phenomenon. It was not a trick of the mind, for we all heard it and recognized it as his voice. It then occurred to me that a few months previous he had called my wife in the same inflection of voice.

Upon a second occurrance, I was walking along the street where I work. Suddenly I was startled from my thoughts by the voice of my son exclaiming "Hello Pop". The sound seemed to be only a few yards away, I started to answer, but thought I had better locate him first. On looking around, I found the street was vacant—not a person was in sight.

Again it occurred to me that he had often met me along this street with the familiar "Hello Pop".

I have only one solution to these two unusual occurrances. Every sound is recorded in the ethers and remains there for ages; at times when we are physically attuned, we contact these records and some experience is repeated in our consciousnes.

There will be space open in MAXIN-96 for advertisers with mutual interest. Rates will be sent upon request.

LETTER No. 2051

Read "When Loneliness Comes", by Dr. Glenn. I know this case intimately and can give you the sidelights later. It is authentic, you can believe every word of it, backed by documentary proof, experiences, etc. He is the man who found Redfern, living in the Golden City, which is in the territory of the Amazons. Get it and read it, you will never want to give it up.

MAXIN-96 RESEARCH

We are not bound by any particular doctrine and are absolutely independent of any other organization. We are impartial and neutral regarding the material contained herein. Any credit given to other organizations, religions, etc., is because of something contained therein that is helpful to our research and NOT because we are sponsoring ANY organization. Any letters or material received by this organization will be used in any way the editor sees fit in conducting his research unless said material is definitely marked NOT FOR PUBLICATION. The pages of Maxin-96 are not confined to any particular branch of research. We deal with any UNIVERSAL subject which our correspondence demands.

Your letters made Maxin-96 possible and the future of the publication depends on your letters. Keep them coming, respond quickly, and tell me what you know of hidden lore. I will follow the trail regardless of where it leads.

I am the hub to a wheel of correspondence, and not the authority. Therefore, I will impart any knowledge I have to you, but will not debate any issues personally. My mind is open. I am impartial.

Many of you will wonder why I do not give credit in this publication and mention the names of the people who write to me. It is for your protection. Also because the people who know and won't tell will open up and tell me what they do know if they feel I will not disclose the source of my information.

All letters I receive are copied immediately omitting names and the originals are placed in a bank vault. No one has access to these names but myself. When answering letter published in Maxin-96, address your letterhead to the number of the letter you are answering. Then I will publish your answer in the next edition by number also—then continuing to build on a particular subject until I get a logical solution to the problem which I will publish. I do not invite criticism of any material in this publication UNLESS accompanied by something constructive to back up your viewpoint.

. . . The most noble criticism is that in which the critic is not the antagonist so much as the rival of the author. . . Disraeli. . .

NATION you have to fear in regard to the Atomic Bomb, I MEAN JUST THAT, and make a big note of this.

I think the key to the successful use of atomic energy lies in, opposing the "Cosmic forces of the night" to the "Cosmic forces of the day" through the use of magnetism (magnet or mental) as a cattalyst. This is the path of research taken by Russia. If you want to check up on these forces, read about the "Navaz" (or night side) forces of nature, in "A Dweller on Two Planets".

There is a great possiblity my opinions are wrong, because I dont have the slightest idea where they originate. I know they came through my mind, and the only thing I have to rely upon is, a large percentage of my opinions have been proven correct in the past, which gives me confidence in my thoughts and prompts me to make predictions that only time will prove.

It's up to you to decide whether I am tapping a good source or not. You can remember one thing, I am not trying to sell you anything, nor do I ask you to believe anything.

I do not want anything that does not present itself to me, and do not want this publication to be read by anyone who does not seek IT. Altho I have in this issue, in the future I am not particularly interested in expressing my own opinion in Maxin-96. I am interested in reflecting the opinions of my readers for what they are worth; and in creating something I like to do that will satisfy my own curious nature, yet pay its own way in return for the helping hand I lend.

Maxin-96 will be just what you make it by your letters, dont blame me if you dont like the material, just send in better material. Please don't call me a "so and so" because a certain type letter appeared in Maxin-96, remember that I didn't write it, I only print the letters that YOU write for the consumption of others like yourselves.

PERIODICALS

"ROUND ROBIN" A publication well worth your support. In fact it gave the first edition of Maxin-96 an inferiority complex. The ROUND ROBIN is published by MEADE LAYNE, at 3615 Alexia Place, San Diego, 4, Calif. A mimeographed 24-page periodical, with good sensible reading material, and articles written by names familiar to all of us, dealing with the numerous occult and scientific subjects which are of mutual interest to all. The price is 25c per copy. Subscription $1.00 for 5 months. This publication is a must because it is a part of the truth we are all seeking. ROUND ROBIN contains correlated information that will appear in no other publication, and is intimate and personal.

"THE NEW YORK SPIRITUALISTIC LEADER" A mimeographed eight page weekly that is very informative on "OCCULT" activities in New York, and gives interesting comment on our various efforts. The address is—Box 832, Grand Central Annex, New York, N. Y.

ATLANTIS RESEARCH CENTER (From England)

The Atlantis Research Center in England is being reformed since the suspension of hostilities. This organization has done some very fine work in the past. They are the ones who compiled the first bibliography of Atlantis published in 1926 and are preparing a new edition which will have well over 4000 references. Soon they will have a monthly bulletin also which you can get by writing to, Egerton Sykes, 9, Markham Square, London s.w.3., England. I have a mimeographed bulletin from them, (too lengthly to publish in this edition), that I assure you is well worth your sending for because it is very informative on what is being done on the continent in an effort to recover the lost knowledge of Atlantis. There has been much more research done on the continent than there has in America regarding the Atlantean question, because they feel much closer to the question than we and do not treat it as a myth.

No matter what your opinion is regarding these mysteries and investigations, you will do well to string along with us until the whole thing comes to a head. I am not trying to create a further mystery by not telling you all I know at this time, I am just asking you to give us more time to gather facts, and I promise you that there will be STARTLING REVELATIONS. There is much more to this than meets the eye, and the evil influence ties in where you would least suspect. I might add, there is nothing for you to fear as an individual at this time, the only ones in danger are those of us who are actively engaged in this investigation.

WHAT IS AHEAD?

In the history of Atlantis, as in ours, the ability to transmit vibrations without wires seems to have been achieved step by step—first sound and then light, first radio an then television. Next came the sending of power without wires. If our civilization is to parallel theirs, this may also be our next step. Much detail is given in the Cayec readings on the Atlantean use of crystals to focus certain sun rays and then transmit this type of power. It will be interesting to note how our development in this direction, if we achieve it, parallels Atlantean practices. But it will be more than interesting, it will be crucial, to see how our civilization uses this power. Will we parallel the history of Atlantis in this way, too?

"For when those facets were prepared for the (harnessing of) motivative forces from the rays of the sun, to be effective upon the activities of those ships and other (consumers of) the electrical forces, these (forces—when) turned upon the elemnts of the earth—caused the first upheavals."

No. 1297-L-1, 11/25/'36

The indications are that we are walking the same path, with purposes all too similar and result too much the same. Note this comment from one life reading.

"Before that the entity was in Atlantis when there were the periods of the first upheavals and the destructions that came to the land—as must (today) in the next generation come to other lands.'

No. 3209-L-1, 12/31/'44

What, then, are we to do? That was the question in the mind of the individual from whose reading this final extract is taken.

"As we have indicated, the Atlanteans were those that had reached an advancement, had been entrusted with divine activities in the earth, and —as (did) the entity (also)—forgot from Whom, all live and have their being. Thus (they) brought about within themselves that which destroyed the body; but not the soul.

"This, then is the purpose of the entity in the earth: to be a chanel of blessing to someone today, now. To be a living example of that (which) He gave —'Come unto me, all that are weak and heavy laden; take my cross upon you and learn of me.' these are thy purposes in the earth. These ye will manifest beautifully, or make a miserable failure again —as ye did in Atlantis, as many another soul in this particular era is doing."

No. 2794-L-1, 11/19/'43

The BULLETIN of the Association for Research and Enlightenment, Inc., is published monthly by The EDGAR CAYCE Publishing Company, Inc., at its office, 320 Arctic Circle, Virginia Beach, Va. Founded in 1931, the BULLETIN has two purposes: first, to stimulate interest in the idea that psychic experiences are phenomena of the soul, and as such should lead to an "understanding of self and its relationship to the Creative Forces, or God"; and second, to present the information obtained through the unique psychic clairvoyance of Edgar Cayce in 30,000 readings given over a period of forty years. Subscriptions may be secured from The EDGAR CAYCE Publishing Company. Inc., Virgina Beach, Va., at $2.50 a year; Canada, $2.75 a year. Single copies, 25 cents. The Only Authentic Volume By Phylos In Existence. The Original, Authorized Occult Classic . . .

A Dweller On Two Planets

● by PHYLOS ●

Here is a book containing the most dynamic message to the world seen since the Bible. An unprecedented volume, it was written under extraordinary circumstances. It was placed on paper in 1884 by F. S. Oliver, an eighteen-year old boy uneducated in the principles so clearly expounded in the book. The real author is the spirit PHYLOS who tells the true romantic story of his life on ancient Atlantis, that jewel of all civilizations, and on our sister planet, Venus.

One of the greatest wonders of this age is the uncanny way in which a DWELLER ON TWO PLANETS predicted inventions which modern technology fulfilled after the writing of the book.

Others will follow. And you owe it to yourself to be able to foresee them according to the predictions of Phylos. This vision of knowledge of the future is priceless and utterly unique in all the history of metaphysical literature.

You know of the heights attained by the science of metaphysics during the golden age of Atlantis.

The golden truth which was a part of their lives in slowly being unfolded to us in these days of the new awakening. You can now share in this more completely than you ever thought possible through the awe inspiring, soul-moving pages of A DWELLER ON TWO PLANETS.

This new edition, containing over 420 beautifully printed pages, artistically illustrated with the original plates, is bound in finest fabricoid with rich blue end sheets and jacket. A rare bargain at any price, it is a memorable value at $5.00

"OAHSPE"

AFTER READING OAHSPE YOU SHOULD KNOW THE ANSWER TO EVERY ONE

ORIGIN OF THE EARTH

Did it come into being by accident or design? Who designed it? How did He form it? From what? How old is the Earth? How much longer will it live? What holds it in its proper place? What propels it?

ORIGIN OF MAN

What was the Father of Man? Who was his mother? How was the first man born upon earth? When? How many races have preceded present man? How many races will follow present man? Will the last race born upon earth be as superior to present mankind as we are superior to early races?

WHAT DO YOU KNOW ABOUT YOU?

Did you come into being when you were born or did you exist prior to that event? If so, where? In what form? Is reincarnation fact or fallacy?

Why are you here? Will your personality and individuality end at death or are you immortal?

Where will you go when you die? In what form will you be? How does a spirit differ from a mortal?

Do your present thoughts and actions determine your future for eternity or will you be given the opportunity to correct past mistakes? Where— in Hell, Purgatory, Paradise or Heaven?

Are you saved or is it necessary to be saved? From what?

WHAT MUST YOU DO TO SECURE HEALTH AND HAPPINESS HERE AND HEREAFTER¿

THE GREAT PYRAMID!

Who built it? For what purpose? How did he build it? How long did it require to build the Pyramid?

Are there rooms or records in the Pyramid that remain undiscovered? Does the Pyramid embody a prophecy?

Was the Pyramid a Temple of initiation or was it simly a Pharaoah's tomb?

QUESTIONS THE ASTRONOMERS CAN NOT ANSWER ARE ANSWERED IN OASHPE

Is the earth the only inhabited planet? Is man the highest form of life in the Universe?

What is gravity, electricity, magnetism, heat and light?

Is Space empty? What is space? Time? What makes mass?

What is the primal, potent energy that gives the Universe its motion?

IS ASTROLOGY A SCIENCE?

Was astrology ever a science? Is it a science now? Is astrology a misinterpretation of cosmic phenomena? Is it safe to depend upon astrology or astrologers?

TODAY AND TOMORROW

Are we in a new era or dispensation? What will this new era bring to humanity?

Is the present epidemic of wars clearing the ground for a new and better world?

Is the present war the War of Armageddon?

Will our civilization survive? How many years will wars rage upon earth?

Will this generation live to greet the millennium or thousand years of peace?

Is the Kingdom of Heaven on Earth at hand?

YOU CAN BE HAPPY, HEALTY AND WISE

OAHSPE will tell you how to develop YOUR spiritual faculties so that you can, in full consciousness, hear your Creator's voice and see His heavens while still living on earth, and to know the place and condition awaiting your death.

UNSUSPECTED POWER

The Mysterious Influence In The Air You Breathe!

THE SOUL OF THE UNIVERSE is in the air you breathe. Deposited in your blood—with each inhalation you take—is the intelligence that directs the course of the planets through the misty reaches of space, and the strange phenomenon of life itself.

What is it that causes your heart to beat, your lungs to expand and contract? What mind directs the cells of your being, each in their purpose—some to create bone, others tissue and hair? What consciousness pervades these vibratory globules of life and gives them awareness of their Cosmic function?

Are you one of the millions who have looked beyond yourself for some external Divine Power or agency? Have you searched in vain for some outer sign or word of Divine assurance when in doubt or in need? Now learn of the unsuspected power that exists in every simple breath —and that becomes part of you. The ancient Egyptians believed that the essence of life was borne on the wings of the air. The Bible proclaims that with the first breath man becomes not just an animated being—but a "living soul." Try this experiment, and prove a Vital Life Force exists in the air. When you are in pain or despondent take a deep breath. Hold it as long as comfortable—then notice the momentary relief.

This Amazing Free Book

Would you seriously like to know how to draw upon this Intelligence of the Cosmic, with which the air is permeated? You can use it to awaken the creative powers of your mind, and for making life an experience of achievement. Use the coupon below for a free copy of the book, "The Mastery of Life." It tells how in the privacy of your home you may learn to use these simple, useful, natural laws.
